C O O K.

COOK or COOKE is an occupational surname. Holmes lists thirty-five emigrants, or heads of separate families of the name in New England prior to 1700. The ancestors from whom most of the Cooks in New England trace their descent came from Herefordshire and Kent.

I. HENRY COOK.

HENRY COOK is said to have been of Scotch origin. He was b. in 1615 and came from co. Kent, England, and was of Puritan stock. He was admitted a resident of Salem, Mass., Oct. 19, 1638. He was at Plymouth, Mass., before 1640. He m. June 16, 1639, JUDITH BIRDSALL, dau. of Henry Birdsall, and d. Dec. 25, 1661. She d. in 1651.

HENRY COOK (No. 8) s. of Henry and Judith (Birdsall) Cook, was b. 30th. 10th. mo. 1652, and d. 1705. He m. Sept. 30, 1678, MARY HALL, b. 1654, d. Oct. 31, 1718, dau. of John and Jane (Woolen) Hall. The names Hale and Hall are often confused in old records. Hall was often written Halle, and sometimes one of the "l's" dropped in writing, making the name Hale, as, e.g., the record of marriage of Henry Cook at Salem, in which his wife's name is given Mary Hale. But their children's signatures to deeds clearly say they were grandchildren of John Hall. Henry Cook was a farmer and elected to offices of trust and responsibility. He lived at Wallingford, Conn.

Joel lived in Wallingford and Plymouth, Conn. He was a private in the Revolution, serving three years, and was a pensioner in Pennsylvania (Conn. Sold. & Sail. In Revo., p. 645). Smith's Company three years; Discharged Apr. 27, 1780 (p. 232); 8th. Rgt. Connecticut line formation of 1777 to 1781. His original Pension Papers are in the possession of his descendant, the family of the late Robert R. Cook of Gilletts Bridge, son of Reed Cook of Potterville. Upon the death of his father, the son returned to the Army and claimed his place, and again answered to the name of Joel Cook, serving his time out and got an honorable discharge. Among other engagements he participated in the siege of Mud Island and the battle of Germantown. The following circumstance during his service is related:

"WHILE THE DIVISION OF THE ARMY TO WHICH HE BELONGED LAY AT VALLEY FORGE, HE WAS TAKEN SICK, BEING CARED FOR BY AN INDIAN. THE DOCTOR GAVE UP HIS CASE AS HOPELESS, AND LEFT HIM FOR THE NIGHT. HIS INDIAN NURSE WENT UP TO HIS CHAMBER AND WENT TO SLEEP. IN THE NIGHT HIS THIRST BECAME ALMOST UNBEARABLE, AND HE WAS UNABLE TO AWAKEN THE INDIAN. HE REMEMBERED HE HAD A FOUR-OZ. BOTTLE OF LIQUID CAMPHOR, WHICH WITH MUCH DIFFICULTY HE MANAGED TO GET FROM HIS KNAPSACK, ONLY INTENDING TO WET HIS LIPS, BUT SOON FOUND HE HAD TAKEN IT ALL, AND VERY SOON WAS IN THE HIGHEST STATE OF PERSPIRATION, WHICH, INSTEAD OF PROVING

THE MEANS OF HIS DEATH, SAVED HIS LIFE. THE DOCTOR SAID IN THE MORNING THAT THE FEVER WAS ENTIRELY GONE, BUT WONDERED THAT THE DOSE OF CAMPHOR HAD NOT KILLED HIM."

Huldah, Uri and Joel Cook all settled in Orwell Twp., Bradford Co., Pa. Zenas came first, but later returned to Connecticut. Joel Cook, Sr., and his wife came in 1814 to live with their son at Potterville, and are bur. in Darling cemetery on Orwell Ridge. Joel Cook became a member of the Orwell Presbyterian Church on June 2, 1818. In his will, dated Feb. 5, 1834, and entered on record Sept. 20, 1836, he gives 2/3 interest in new dwelling house and 1/3 of barn, and all land lying north and south running thru Orwell to Warren, to son Uri, on condition he pay certain amounts to other heirs, viz., son Zenas and daus. URI COOK (No. 83526) s. of Joel and Dinah (Dunbar) Cook, was b. in Connecticut, Dec. 24, 1779, and came to Bradford county in 1818, occupying lands adjoining his brother Joel. His wife was PHEBE BARBER, who d. ae. 54. He d. June 23, 1860, ae. 80. He was a prominent man in Orwell Twp., having been for many years deacon in the Presbyterian Church, and might be called the father of that Church organization in Orwell. He and his wife Phebe were enrolled in the membership there Mch. 25, 1821. In 1824 the Orwell Church changed from Congregational to Presbyterian, and Uri Cook, who had been one of the deacons in the old Church, was unanimously elected one of the ruling elders of the new organization, serving until his resignation, July 12, 1841. His obituary calls him Rev. Uri Cook, and says that he preached in Orwell, Warren, LeRaysville and Potterville. He was a member of a committee to make arrangements for the dedication of the Church at Orwell, Jan. 7, 1828. He subscribed 3 shares @ $5 each toward the building fund. He had a front seat in the center. His will is dated May 5, 1855, and probated July 11, 1860, in which he leaves his son Zeri his messuage in Orwell and all personal estate except household furniture, which is to be divided among his daus., to whom Zeri is also to pay certain legacies, viz., Sally Matthews; Elizabeth Black; heirs of deceased dau. Fanny Potter; and dau. Laura Cook. The old house on the farm was built about 1815, being subsequently occupied by his grandson, Reed Cook, and he cleared the greater part of his 200-acre farm. They are bur. in Darling cemetery.

Rev. DARWIN COOK (No. 835-2A1) s. of Joel and Polly (Russell) Cook, was b. Apr. 1, 1815, and d. Sept. 13, 1888. He was bp. Aug. 7, 1820, at the Orwell Presbyterian Church, which was then a Congregational body. On May 3, 1835 he was received into membership on examination. When he was 21 years of age, about 1836, he rode a raft from Owego down the Susquehanna, then took the new canal and car drawn over the mountains by a cable from a satatioary engine out of Pittsburgh, to take up land near Bloomington, Indiana. He met a group of ministers traveling by canal to one of the first annual General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church at St. Louis. This decided him to become a minister. He worked on a farm near Pittsburgh to earn his fare back and started in at the newly founded LaFayette College in Easton, Pa. The diary of this trip has been preserved, as well as various contemporary correspondence. Several letters from his father were addressed to him at Conyngham, Pa., near Berwick, where he served as minister.

He came to the pastorate of the Rome, Pa., Presbyterian Church in 1850, and remained until 1858, when he accepted a call to the Presbyterian Churches of Wyalusing—then located at Merryall—South Herrick, Camptown and Lime Hill. While at Rome eighteen persons joined by confession of faith, and eight by certificate, including Mrs. A.L. Cook, his wife, from Donaldson. The old Presbyterian church house at Rome in which Rev. Cook preached, was farther up the street, on the same side, from the present brick structure. It is related that while jesticulating in the course of preaching in the old high pulpit, he backed down to one of the lower steps, just catching himself from falling backwards. Rev. Cook had a house fully furnished at Rome, the first mention of a parsonage.

Of his ministry at Merryall and Herrick, under date of Apr. 1, 1859 he wrote:—"MY BIRTHDAY, 54 YEARS OLD. HAVE BAPTIZED 100 SINCE I CAME HERE. RECEIVED TO MEMBERSHIP ABOUT 38, AND IN HERRICK AS MANY MORE, HAVING DELIVERED 366 SERMONS AND ADDRESSES IN ELEVEN YEARS AND PREPARED FOR COLLEGE 13 YOUNG MEN." including Milton L. Cook, his son. In 1863 he wrote that Milton "GOES TO TOWANDA [TO THE SUSQUEHANNA COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE] WITH PROVISIONS FOR THE BOYS, APPLES, POTATOES, MEAT. GOD TAKE CARE OF THE CHILDREN, PRESERVE THEM FROM VICE, MAKE THEM USEFUL, HAPPY, PIOUS, INDUSTRIOUS." In Jan. next Darwin took 20 pies and 14 loaves of bread, &c, for them.

He m. Sept. 4, 1849, ADELIA LEWIS, b. July 2, 1823, d. Sept. 13, 1888, dau. of Justus and Polly (Keeler) Lewis of Merryall. His residence is given as Tremont, Pa., at that time.

CYRUS COOK (No. 835-2A3) s. of Joel, Jr., and Polly (Russell) Cook, was b. Feb. 16, 1818, and d. Oct. 22, 1900. He was b. in Potterville and lived there, and all his children were b. in Orwell Twp., his son Oliver spending his life on the home farm. He was educated in public schools, select school at LeRaysville, and attended the preparatory department of LaFayette College. In 1839 he began teaching, which profession he followed several years, and then commenced farming. In 1841 he purchased a farm close to Potterville, which was covered with a dense forest, and there resided several years in a log house, much of his time engaged in clearing his farm. After eight years he removed to the place afterwards owned by his son Avery, where he resided until 1866. Then he came to the place which became his permanent home, and devoted over ten years of his life to lumbering and rafting down the river. He owned fifteen acres of as beautiful land as is to be found in his section of the county—well fenced, mostly with stone wall, and he built over six hundred rods of wall in his time. The farm was well stocked with cattle, sheep and horses. The family were members of the Methodist Church. He was first a member of a Methodist class which met at the Orwell Church in 1874-5, C.H. Upham leader. His wife Caroline was a member of the same class. In 1880 he subscribed $2 toward repairing the Orwell Methodist Church; on a second occasion, in 1870, he gave $25 for the same purpose. On Jan. 18, 1877 he gave a similar amount ($25) additional. In politics Mr. Cook was a staunch Republican. He was assistant revenue collector during 1879-80. He also held numerous political positions in Bradford county and Orwell Twp. Two Cyrus Cooks are recorded in the old Hanford Directory for 1900. THE WESTBROOK HOUSE.

THE WESTBROOK HOME IS AN ARCHITECTURAL GEM OF THE COLONIAL DAYS. IT IS ON THE Old Mine Road, WHICH STRETCHED FROM THE HUDSON TO THE DELAWARE RIVERS, A HUNDRED MILES IN LENGTH, AND IS the oldest road of equal length IN THE UNITED STATES. THE SITE IS MARKED BY A BRONZ MARKER, ERECTED BY THE SUSSEX CO., N.J., HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND THE CHINCKCHEWUNSKA CHAPTER DAR, WHICH STANDS ALONG THE HIGHWAY AT THE ENTRANCE TO THE LANE LEADING TO THE HOUSE. IT IS ONE OF THREE HOUSES STILL STANDING THAT WERE A PART OF THE ANCIENT VILLAGE OF MINISINK. ANOTHER ONE IS THE Ennis House, SHOWN IN CONNEXION WITH THE RECORDS OF THAT FAMILY ELSEWHERE IN THIS SERIES. (Vide ENNIS Family). THE ANCESTORS OF THE WESTBROOK FAMILY WERE LIVING THERE, OWNED THE FARM, AND VOTED THERE IN 1701. THEIR VOTES WERE COUNTED IN ULSTER CO., N.Y. NINE GENERATIONS OF THE FAMILY LIVED ON THIS FARM. THIS IS A STONE HOUSE. IT HAS HAD ALL KINDS OF ILLUMINATION, FROM THE PINE FAGOT, ANIMAL OILS, TALLOW CANDLE, KEROSENE LAMP, AND ITS PRESENT SYSTEM OF ELECTRICITY. THE BUILDING OF THE TOCKS ISLAND DAM ON THE DELAWARE RIVER JUST ABOVE THE DELAWARE WATER GAP WILL INUNDATE SOME 12,000 ACRES OF LAND AND OBLITERATE MANY OF THE OLDEST AND MOST SIGNIFICANT LANDMARKS OF THIS COUNTRY'S EARLY HISTORY. THE FIRST MOVE HAS BEEN MADE TO SAVE THE HISTORIC HOMES IN THE DELAWARE RIVER VALLEY. THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE HAS ACQUIRED THE HOUSE, AND PLANS TO RESTORE THE HOME AND THEN OPEN IT TO VISITORS IN THE RECREATION AREA, OR MINISINK HISTORIC PARK, FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS TO VISIT. THE ARMY ENGINEERS ARE CONSIDERING BUILDING A PROTECTIVE DIKE AROUND IT, TO KEEP OUT THE TOCKS ISLAND WATERS. THERE WAS A SECRET PASSAGE FROM THE HOUSE WHICH AFFORDED THE EARLY SETTLERS A MEANS OF ESCAPE FROM RAIDING INDIANS THRU A TUNNEL BY WHICH THE EARLY RESIDENTS COULD FLEE TO THE SAFETY OF THE NEAR-BY WESTBROOK FORT, NOT NOW EXTANT. THIS VIEW, TAKEN FROM THE BACK OF THE HOUSE, CLEARLY DEMONSTRATES THE CHARACTERISTIC EARLY DUTCH ARCHITECTURE OF STORY-AND-A-HALF CONSTRUCTION, WITH NO DORMER WINDOWS IN THE SIDES.

THE continuing line of descent in the ownership of the Old House is from Martinus Westbrook (No. 2672) s. of Abram and Maria (Helm) Westbrook, whose son was Abraham (No. 26722). He was b. Nov. 15, 1775, and bp. Aug. 24, 1777. He m. Ann Buckley, b. Oct. 11, 1778, dau. of Reuben Buckley, and they had seven children, one of whom was:—

VI. Reuben Buckley Westbrook, b. Mch. 26, 1805; whose dau.:—

VII. Clementina Westbrook, m. Benton Bell. Their son:—

VIII. Burson Bell, last owner of the Westbrook house, when it was bought up by the Government to make way for the Tocks Island Dam Reservoir.

WESTBROOK.

I. Antony Janse Westbrook.

WE ARE INDEBTED TO MR. W.E. WESTBROOKE OF SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF., WHO HAS BEEN MUCH INTERESTED IN THE HISTORY OF HIS FAMILY, FOR PART OF THE INFORMATION REGARDING THE EARLIER GENERATIONS OF THE FAMILY. THE LATE O.K. WESTBROOK OF BUFFALO, N.Y., DID MUCH TO COLLECT THE RECORDS OF MANY OF THOSE SCATTERED ABOUT SOUTHERN NEW YORK AND NORTHERN PENNSYLVANIA. AND MR. J. HAROLD WESTBROOK, FORMERLY OF TROY, PA., NOW OF ATHENS, DID MUCH SLEUTHING ON HIS OWN BRANCH OF THE FAMILY, AND MADE MANY SORTIES IN THIS GENERAL AREA CONTACTING THOSE OF THE NAME, VISITING CEMETERIES, AND OTHERWISE VERIFYING THE AVAILABLE RECORDS. A HEARTY THANK YOU! IS ACCORDED TO ALL THREE OF THESE GENTLEMEN FOR THEIR hard work, AND FOR SHARING THE FRUIT OF THEIR EFFORTS FOR THE MUTUAL BENEFIT OF ALL THEIR CONTEMPORARIES.

Mr. W.E. Westbrooke of San Francisco, already referred to, has found evidence of the residence of his family in Westbroek, Holland, for probably two generations before their emigration to America. The earliest of these was

I. THEUNIS REYERSZOON, or Theunis, son of Reyer, who m. JANNICHJE JANSDOCHTER, a resident of Westbrook, and had four children, one of whom was:

•1. Jan Theuniszoon, m. Eychjan Bosch.

II. JANTHEUNISZOON (NO. 1) s. of Theunis Reyerszoon and Jannichje (Jansdochter) m. EYCHJAN BOSCH, and resided in Westbroeck, Holland. They were the parents of two children, one of whom, Antony Jansen, is believed to have been the Anthony Jansen, founder of the Westbrook family in this country.

•1 Anthony Jansen, m. Orrseltie Dircks.

III. ANTONY JANSZ VANWESTBROOK, or Jonathan Westbrook, prob. s. of Jan Theuniszoon and Eychgan (Bosch) of Westbroek, Holland, was an officer in Oliver Cromwell's army. Various persons from the village of Westbroek contracted with Kilian VanRensselaer for employment in the colony of Rensselaerwijck, now Albany, N.Y., one of whom was Jan Teunissen, a carpenter. Antony Jansen is the only person who adopted the surname "Westbrook" when required to distinguish himself from at least two other contemporary Antony Jansen's, when the British took control of the colony. Having come to this country at the restoration and accession of Charles II to the throne of England in 1660, he located at Flatbush, L.I., and at Albany, N.Y., where he was a Court Messenger. His wife, ORRSELTIE DIRCKS, whom he m. abt. 1658-9, was a well-to-do Dutch woman, Ursul Dirks, a young daughter from Hamburg, living at "Leuvenhaven," was first m. to JAN HENDRICKSEN, a young man, at Hillegersberg, near Rotterdam, Oct. 25, 1653, after publication of the intended marriage on Sept. 21, 1653. Jan Hendricksen apparently did not survive for long, for on Aug. 29, 1655, a publication was made of the intended marriage of Tuenis Jacobs, a young man from Beeckum, living at Pannekoekstraat, and Orsel Dircks, widow of Jan Hendricksen, living in Nieuwe Vogelsang. Ursel Dircks from Holstein, with two children, was a passenger to New Netherland in the De Noesman (THE MARKET GARDENER), and arrived May 1, 1658. The ages of her two children are shown as two years, and ten months, resp. Their names are unknown. While en route to join her new husband at Albany, Ursel ordered some new clothes from Antony De Lorme, corner of Goldweighers & Broad Sts., New York, on Apr. 23, 1658, and received an advance of money in silver and gold.

On Nov. 30, 1662, Antonis Jansen paid for the use of a small pall, and on June 11, 1664, he again paid for the use of the pall, according to the burial records of the First Dutch Reformed Church at Albany. The names of the two children are not given. Orrseltie was empowered to act, by her husband, Oct. 27, 1661, and their names appear in the colonial records between Apr. 3, 1652 and Dec. 22, 1678, in over 125 records, many of which have never been published. They tell a human interest story. Mr. Westbrook finally lost all his property. Flatbush Paper No. 6935, dated May 1, 1672, contains the full signature of Antoni Jansen Westbroeck. This is the only paper bearing his full signature, and shortly before his death. The Westbrook's were located on the manor of Patroon VanRensselaer at Albany, and finally became established at Kingston, N.Y. their specific location being at Rochester, or Accord.

DIRCK or DERRICK WESTBROOK (No. 1) s. of Antony Janse and Orrseltie (Dircks) Westbrook, survived his father, and took the Oath of Allegiance in 1689. He m., Aug. 25, 1695, by Johannes Petrus Nucella, to CATRINA OOSTERHOUT, both being of Kingston, N.Y., at which place their children were all baptized. JOHANNES WESTBROOK (No. 2) s. of Antony Janse and Orrseltie (Dircks) Westbrook, was b. at Albany. He settled at Kingston, N.Y., where he m. May 12, 1687, MAGDALENA JANSE DEKKER, bp. at Kingston, Oct. 3, 1666, dau. of Lieut. Jan Broerson Dekker and his wife Aeltje Jacobs. He took the Oath of Allegiance Sept. 1, 1689. He served as a trustee at Kingston in 1694. He was a member of the Company of Foot in Kingston in 1686 or 1687. In 1709-10 and in 1718-19 he was taxed one shilling in Ulster county for one fyre place. He was one of the six original settlers of the Minisink or upper Delaware region, having been one of the white founders of Minisink village, owning a farm there and voting there in 1701. The Westbrook, Cortright and other families were in the "Lower Neighborhood" from Port Jervis southward, and located on either side of the Neversink from what is now Huguenot south to Port Jervis. Three of his sons settled in the Minisink along the Delaware in New Jersey in 1737. In 1739, Johannes, Johannes Jr., and Antony Westbrook were all taxed at Minisink for building a gaol at Goshen in Orange county. The Minisink region was claimed by New York, its inhabitants voting in Ulster county. Johannis Westbroeck was acknowledged by his brother Dirck, Aug. 14, 1706, in an old deed filed in the Ulster County Clerk's Office. In his will Johannes called himself a resident of Knightfield (in Wawarsing Twp.), Ulster Co. He d. in 1727, survived by his wife, four sons and two daus. His will is dated Jan 25, 1725/26, and probated Apr. 10, 1727, and is written in Dutch. In it he mentions his wife Magdalena; sons Anthony, Johannes, Cornelius, Dirck; daus, Sarah wife of Cornelius VanAken; Antie wife of Jacob VanEtten; grandson Benjamin, son of deceased dau. Ursulla. Exrs. sons Anthony and Johannis; wits. Capt. Jacob Rutsen jun., Maj. Johannis Hardenbergh, Nicolaes Roosa and W. Nottingham. The children were all baptized in the Kingston Dutch Church.

ANTONI or ANTHONY WESTBROOK (No. 23) s. of Johannes and Magdalena Jans (Dekker) Westbrook, was bp. Apr. 17, 1692, at Kingston, N.Y. He had the village of Minisink, Sussex Co., N.J., platted for him in 1725 along with his brother Johannes Westbrook Jr., and Jan Cortreght. About 1724 he bought 120 acres on Minisink Island and 120 acres opposite on the New Jersey mainland, from Kuykendall and Westfaal. On Apr. 7, 1725, Cornelius Low surveyed and platted the above 240-acre purchase, marking off three five-acre house lots along the river bank, for Anthony Westbrook, Jan Cortreght and Johannes Westbrook Jr. The settlement was formed opposite the lower end of Minisink Island, on the site of the Indian village. Three houses, one marked Westbrook, are shown here in the 1769 Survey of the Delaware river. It is now in the political subdivision of Montague Twp., Sussex Co., N.J., and his residence would be located above Millville in Montague Twp. Mr. Westbrook was prominent among the settlers there, holding the office of Justice of the Peace in 1737, and left a record of the earliest marriages in the Minisink valley. He was also an elder in the Reformed Dutch Church. He m. Apr. 30, 1714, at Kingston, N.Y., AALTJEN VANETTEN, and their eight children were all baptized at Kingston except Maria, who was baptized at New Paltz.

Apr. 6, 1761, at Minisink Church, dau. of Nicholas and Hester (VanGarden) Brinck. During the Revolutionary war he served as a private in the Sussex Co., N.J., Militia in 1777. On May 14, 1778 he was a member of Class 7, 6th. Battalion, Northampton Co., Pa., Militia; and in 1781 was a member of Class 7, 5th. Battalion, Northampton County Troops. Next we find him in Capt. John Franklin's Company of Wyoming Valley troops, 5th. Rgt. Connecticut Militia, 1782. On Feb. 5, 1787, he signed a Petition during the Wyoming controversy. He had Lot No. 10 in the original grant of Standing Stone, June 1788, and was a settler there under the Connecticut Susquehanna Company, in or before 1790. He is listed as an inhabitant of Luzerne county in the 1790 census, which was not returned by townships. And once again we find him performing military duty. In Sept. 1792 he was a Lieutenant, Second Co., Luzerne Militia, and Aug. 17, 1793, he was Captain, Sixth Co., First Rgt. of Luzerne Co. Militia. He moved from Standing Stone to Ulster, locating down next to the narrows. Both Leonard and his brother Cherick were taxables in Tioga Twp., Luzerne Co., in list bearing date 1795. It included all of what is now Bradford county above an east-and-west line that passed thru Standing Stone Rock. After living at Ulster for some years, he moved to New York State. On Oct 7 1803 he purchased land in Ontario Co., N.Y., from Richard Westbrook and Anne his wife. Ezra Towner, husband of his dau. Jane Westbrook, was a witness. He is listed in the 1810 census of Gorham, Ontario Co. He was a resident of Canada during the War of 1812, having resided at Westminster, Ontario, from 1811-1816. By 1820 he had found his way to Ohio, as in that year he was in Bennington, Delaware Co., O., and the following year was a resident of Newton, Trumbull Co., O. In 1826 he paid taxes, both real and personal, once again in Bennington Twp., Delaware Co., O. The following year, July 5, 1827, was on the Delaware county list of Delinquent Tax Due. The Westbrook's had seven children. While in Bradford county, Mr. Westbrook had also been an early settler in the Towner Hill area of Rome Twp. for a while.

CHERICK WESTBROOK (No. 2929) s. of Abram D. and Blondena (Rosenkrans) Westbrook, was bp. as Therk, Aug. 19, 1768, at the Minisink Dutch Church. Other variants of the name were Charck, Cherick, Cherck, and Cherrick. He served in Capt. John Franklin's Wyoming Company, Fifth Rgt., Connecticut Militia, 1782. He and his brother Leonard came to Bradford county under the Susquehanna Purchase in or about 1790, first at Standing Stone and next at Ulster. Both are listed in the 1790 census of Luzerne county, which was not returned by townships, and both were taxables in Tioga Twp., Luzerne Co., in an early list dated 1795, embracing all of Bradford county above Standing Stone Rock. Cherick received a half-share Certificate for Lot 17 from the Susquehanna Company, saying that he was entitled to a half-share, provided he remain in said purchase three years, and do not depart hence except with the permission of the committee of said Company, pursuant to the vote of July 13, 1785. On the back of this Certificate is endorsed that he, the said Cherick Westbrook, had complied with the conditions, and entered his right in Standing Stone. A man named Stringer had been on the place before Westbrook came. Stringer was from New York State, and went back there again. In 1813 Cherick returned to Standing Stone from Ulster, where he continued to reside until the time of his death, Jan. 1817, when he was killed by the fall of a tree while chopping. His estate was administered by his widow Rachel, of Wysox Twp., which then included Standing Stone, Jan. 27, 1817. He m. RACHEL DAVENPORT, who, after his death, was subsequently m. three times; her second husband being ----- LYONS; the third was ----- RICHARDS; and the fourth, ----- PARKS. She d. at the age of 90 years, having outlived all her husbands. There is a marker in the Standing Stone cemetery which seems to read, RACHEL, WIFE OF WILLIAM PARK, D. MCH. 15, 1844, AE. 28 YRS. Perhaps these figures are misread, and the age should be something more like 88, unless the grave is that of a different individual. It would have been possible, of course, for William Park to have had an earlier wife, also named Rachel. The Westbrook location was on the lower Kingsley place, later the Clagett or Hunt place, on the River Road between Standing Stone and Rummerfield, lately owned by Lawrence Bellows, now the Weller place. There was a cemetery about half-way between the barn and the old Fisher schoolhouse, which has since been obliterated. The late Fred K. Stevens of Standing Stone once informed The Editor that when he was a lad he used to visit the elder Mrs. Hunt, who was a sister of his father, and at that time there was a solitary gravestone there, but he did not recall who it was.

JOHANNES WESTBROOK (No. 23352) s. of Solomon and Margaret (DeWitt) Westbrook, was better known as Col. John Westbrook. He was b. Jan. 9, 1789, in Sussex Co., N.J., and d. near Dingmans Ferry, Oct. 8, 1852. He was bp. Feb. 8, 1789, in the Minisink Dutch Church, by the celebrated Dominie Benschoten. He came to Pike county with his father when three years of age. He m. Feb. 14, 1808, at the age of 19, SARAH BRODHEAD, dau. of Judge Richard Brodhead of Pike county, b. Feb. 12, 1792, she then being aged 16, and after the death of Col. Westbrook she m. (2) REV. JOHN LEE of Newark, N.J., whom she also survived, her death occurring Jan. 21, 1879, ae. 87. The Westbrooks had four children who reached adult age. Col. Westbrook was one of the leading men of Pike county in his day, and while his chief occupation was farming, he was engaged at times in lumbering and mercantile business. Before he reacned the age of 21 he was an officer in the State Militia, and at one time he was Colonel in the regiment of which his brother Jacob was Major, and his brother Solomon Captain. In 1817, when 28 years old, he was elected Sheriff of Pike county, and in 1833 he went to the Legislature, where he extended his acquaintance among people of note, gaining the friendship of such men as James Buchanan and Thaddeus Stevens, then a member of the Assembly. He was always proud of his personal acquaintance with Andrew Jackson, and when in reminiscent vein, delighted to tell of some of his conversing—at times with Martin VanBuren in Low Dutch, to the chagrin of the inquisitive politicians around them. During his term in the Legislature the great "Anti-Masonic" controversy arose, and as the Colonel was an ardent Mason, he took an active part in the proceedings. In 1840 he was elected to Congress, and his faithful and untiring work caused a decline in health from which he never quite fully rallied. While he had never enjoyed a thoro scholastic training, his keen mind readily grasped the facts and principles relating to any line of thot, and those who knew him preferred his judgment on legal questions to that of any practitioner, people coming from long distances to ask his advice, or have him draw up wills and deeds. For such services he never made any charge, and, in fact, benevolence was one of his leading traits. His integrity was never questioned, and notwithstanding the opportunities for enrichment which his public life afforded, he died a comparatively poor man. As a speaker he was able, forceful and eloquent, and among the relics cherished by his children was the manuscript of an oration delivered by him in his 27th. year, which showed remarkable power of thot and expression. His progressive mind made him the champion of many movements which were but feebly supported in his day. The appropriation for testing the Morse telegraph system being supported by him in Congress, and thru his influence with President Tyler, a woman was made postmistress at Easton, Pa., that being probably the first appointment of that kind. Col. Westbrook joined the Methodist Church while a member of the Legislature in 1833, and remained a member until the close of his life.

Hon. SOLOMON WESTBROOK (No. 23353) s. of Solomon and Margaret (DeWitt) Westbrook, was b. Apr. 5, 1793, on his father's homestead, which bordered the west bank of the Delaware river in Delaware Twp., and was baptized in the old Walpack Dutch Church. On Dec. 10, 1811, he was m. by Rev. J. Forse to HANNAH COOLBAUGH, who was b. Nov. 25, 1790, at Coolbaugh, Pa., dau. of Judge John and Susannah (VanCampen) Coolbaugh of that place. (Cf. Coolbaugh Family In America, p. 16). She was bp. Aug. 2, 1791, in the old Dutch Church at Shawnee. In 1819 Mr. Westbrook sold his farm to his brother Jacob and purchased another in Middle Smithfield Twp., Monroe Co., Pa., where he resided ten years. He early became well known thruout the Delaware valley. He was Captain of a regiment of State Militia in which his brother Jacob was Major and his brother John a Colonel. The first board of county commissioners of Pike county resolved to levy a tax of half a cent upon the dollar on all taxable property in the county to defray the probable expenses of the county for the year. They then proceeded to the appointment of assessors in those townships in which none had been elected according to law. One of the latter townships was Delaware, in which Solomon Westbrook Jr. was appointed assessor, with Cooper Jagger and Everett Hornbeck assistants. He early became a member of Zebulon Lodge No. 179, FAM at Coolbaugh. In 1823 he was elected Sheriff of Pike county, serving a term of three years. In 1829 he sold his farm to his brother-in-law, John V. Coolbaugh, and removed to Philadelphia, Pa., for a year. But he returned in 1836 and carried on a store at Bushkill for a year, while for five years he conducted a hotel at Dingmans Ferry. While there—in 1832—he again embarked in the mercantile business and also carried on merchandising at Tafton, 1835-36. In the meantime he had become extensively engaged in lumbering at Blooming Grove, Pike Co. He bought a home of William Spering at Blooming Grove in 1827. This same year he also rebuilt the old mill at Blooming Grove. In 1835 he returned to the old stone house on the homestead. In 1837 a paralytic stroke nearly incapacitated him for business, depriving him of the power of speech while he was yet in the prime of manhood. In 1842 he returned to Blooming Grove, where he and his wife spent their remaining years, his sons taking charge of his lumber business, which they carried on for many years. He d. in 1852 and his wife in 1874. Their children all received the rite of infant baptism at the old Walpack Dutch Church.

4. Lafayette, b. Dec. 14, 1824, near Dingmans Ferry, was bp. in the Walpack Dutch Ch. Aug. 31, 1825. He recd. an excellent education for that day at Delaware Academy. He became proficient as a surveyor, & in 1850 & 1853 was elected County Surveyor of Pike county, serving 2 terms with marked success. He was considered an authority on the location of land in this region & at one time he assisted in making a map of Pike Co. Thruout his life he was more or less occupied with surveying. In 1856 he was chosen to represent Pike & Monroe Cos. in the Pa. Legislature, & so well did he perform his duties that he was re-elected the following yr. In 1862 he assisted in raising Co. B, 151st. Pa. Vol. Inf., & entered the service with the rank of 1st. Lieut. On Mch. 7, 1863, he was made Captain, & this rank he held until honorably discharged, July 27, 1863, at the expiration of his term. While in the service he was never absent from his command one moment, & he took part in several important engagements, including the battles of Chancellorsville & Gettysburg. On his return home he resumed work as a surveyor, & he also engaged extensively in lumbering at Blooming Grove, where he resided until 1882. In 1874 he was elected County Surveyor again, against his own wishes. In 1866 he was again chosen Representative in the State Legislature, his district being changed to Pike & Monroe Cos. His ability & experience made his services of so great value to his fellow-citizens that, in 1867, he was re-elected without opposition. In 1877 & 1878, under the new constitution, he again represented Pike Co. in the Legislature, each co. being entitled to a member—thus completing 6 yrs. of service in this capacity. The Captain was regarded for many yrs. as one of the leading Democrats of this section, & at various conventions, State & National, he took an honorable part in the work of the party. At times he held local ogices, including that of Justice of the Peace, & his interest in educational advancement was shown by his services as school director. During all these yrs. he conducted his lumber business in connexion with surveying, but in 1882 he rm. to Stroudsburg, relinquishing a portion of his business cares, his investments, however, receiving his personal attention, & for some time he acted as director & vice-president of the East Stroudsburg National Bank. Col. LEVI WESTBROOK (No. 26472) s. of Abram, was b. Jan. 10, 1798 He m. LOUISA ----------, who was b. Jan. 9, 1812, and d. Feb. 5, 1852. He d. Jan. 7, 1853. They came from Orange Co., N.Y., in 1836 and purchased a large tract of land south of Spanish Hill at South Waverly, Pa., in Athens Twp., Bradford Co., a part of which was known as the Irwin tract. Later this property was sold to his brother, Gen. Abraham Westbrook. Levi came to Athens before his brother Abraham. He had two children, but is said to have left no permanent heirs. He may have been the Levi who also lived at Nichols, N.Y., where Abraham is also said to have lived for a time. Levi of Nichols m. ELIZABETH WHITAKER of Orange Co., N.Y. Letters of Administration on the estate of Levi Westbrook of Athens were granted to Abram Westbrook, Jan. 15, 1853. ABRAM WESTBROOK (No. 29291) head of the family here presented, is believed to have been a son of Cherick and Rachel (Davenport) Westbrook. He m. 1817, AZUBAH ROWLEY, b. Nov. 7, 1791, in Vermont. They were the parents of a son Cherick, b. May 14, 1818, and then Abram d. the next year, 1819. Azubah afterwards, in 1821, became the wife of JOHN ALLEN of Lake Wysauking, Pa., and they had three daus. (Vide Daniel Allen Fam.). This would seem to explain the name "WESTBROOK" for the wife of John Allen. Further confirmation of this is that ROWLEY is the name given for her in the sketch of Stephen Harlow, whose wife was Celinda Allen, dau. of Azubah, appearing in H.C. BRADSBY'S HISTORY OF BRADFORD COUNTY, (p. 864) published in 1891, and there would seem to be no occasion for stating that her name was Rowley if that were not it. The census records also give her birthplace as Vermont, which would seem to indicate that she was not a Westbrook. Further information, obtained from the Drake family of Lake Wysauking, also descended from John Allen and Azubah, affirms that the latter was a Rowley; that she was the wid. of an Abram Westbrook, who was a son of Cherick. Members of the Ralph Webb family, also descended from the Allen's, inform us that they knew members of the Westbrook family, who used to visit their relatives at the Lake, and that they called them "COUSINS." Cherick Westbrook d. Dec. 5, 1902, confirming the recollections of the older generation, that he lived to be very old.

HENRY WESTBROOK (No. 29293) s. of Cherick and Rachel (Davenport) Westbrook, was b. Sept. 3, 1801, and d. Feb. 9, 1872. He m. (1) Aug 4, 1822, by Justice Harry Morgan of Wysox, to RUTH ALLEN, b. Apr. 11, 1800, d. Feb. 5, 1838, dau. of Stephen Oney and Jemima (Dodd) Allen of Lake Wysauking (No. 35, Daniel Allen Fam.). He m. (2) June 13, 1838, MRS. AURELIA DRAKE, b. Aug. 31, 1816, d. May 19, 1882. Some believe that she might have been a sister of his first wife, others that possibly she was a Porter. Henry lived at Standing Stone, and is said to have had 22 children. We have been unable to ascertain the names of all of them. Possibly some may have d. in infancy, whose names have not been remembered, or even earlier children of the second wife may have been included in the count. Letters of Administration on the estate of Henry Westbrook were granted to Aurelia Westbrook, Feb. 23, 1872, and his estate was set to her, Mch. 4, 1872. Administration on the estate of Aurelia

Westbrook, late of Standing Stone, was granted to Lorin Westbrook, Sept. 8, 1882. A second set of Administration papers were filed by Electa Williams and Jackson Williams on Nov. 8, 1882. The names of the children and claimants of the estate of Aurelia Westbrook were I.P. Westbrook, Cynthia Ryan, Esther Drake, L.S. Westbrook, Lois Grippin, Francis Ransom, T.J. Westbrook, Electa Williams, Caroline Fulford and James Westbrook.

WILLIAM WESTBROOK (No. 29296) s. of Cherick and Rachel (Davenport) Westbrook, m. MAHALA DUNN and occupied a portion of the homestead at Standing Stone. He hung himself, Aug. 7, 1833, in Standing Stone Twp. up the brook that comes down just below the Methodist Church. The place is indicated on the old Bradford County Atlas (1869). On Aug. 15, 1833, Eli Gibbs administered his estate. As Administrator he gave deed of estate of William Westbrook, late of Wysox to William Angle. This was before Standing Stone was set off from Wysox. On complaint of Henry Westbrook, a Citation was issued to Mahala Westbrook, wid. of William Westbrook, returnable Aug. 17, 1833. Mahala Westbrook appeared Aug. 15, 1833, and Letters of Administration were granted to Mahala Westbrook and Eli Gibbs of Bradford county on estate of William Westbrook. The real estate belonging to William is described as situate in Wysox Twp., containing about sixty acres and adjoining land owned by Isaac VanNess on the east, on the south by the Susquehanna river, and on the west by land in the possession of Henry Westbrook. The personal estate of the intestate was insufficient to pay his debts, and the Court ordered that his real estate or so much thereof as may be necessary for the payment of the debts, be sold; same was sold Feb. 12, 1835, to William Angle of Bradford county for $230. But Mahala refused to execute the deed, and, on report to Court, dated Feb. 16, 1836, she had removed out of the State of Pennsylvania; Court ordered that Eli Gibbs, the other administrator, execute the deed. The Directory of Schuyler Co., N.Y., lists Mahala Westbrook, farmer, 48 acres, P.O. Orange, in Orange Twp. Perhaps this was William's widow. Eli Gibbs is bur. in South Hill cemetery in Orwell Twp., Bradford Co.

Rev. RICHARD BRODHEAD WESTBROOK (No. 233-523) s. of Col. John and Sarah (Brodhead) Westbrook, was always called Brodhead Westbrook in his youth. He was b. Feb. 8, 1820, near Dingmans Ferry, where he lived with his parents until his twentieth year. His early educational advantages were limited to the common district school and the old Delaware Academy. He became practically familiar with farming and horsemanship in his boyhood, and could not remember the time when he was not expected to make himself useful about the wood-pile, the barn, and the farm. He taught a common district school, and "BOARDED AROUND" before he was seventeen, and soon after taught in the Delaware and Milford Academies. About this time he commenced the study of theology under the preceptorship of Rev. Alexander Gilmore. He received license to preach on Sept. 8, 1839, and was admitted on trial as an itinerant preacher in the New Jersey Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Burlington, N.J., Apr. 18, 1840. He was appointed by the Conference within the next ten years to serve at Parsippany, Hackettstown, Stillwater, Plainfield, Elizabeth and Mount Holly, all in New Jersey. He was ordained a Deacon in the spring of 1842 at Camden by Bishop Waugh, and an Elder or Presbyter in the spring of 1844, at Trenton by Bishop Morris, after passing the usual four courses of study, credentials of which he ever afterwards held clean and unimpaired. On Jan. 27, 1852, he withdrew from the Methodist Church in consequence of a change of his views on certain theological dogmas and questions of Church polity and usage. He became a member of the Presbyterian Church. His first and only pastorate among the Presbyterians was in Burlington, N.J., the very city in which he had been received into the Methodist Conference, twelve years before. While pastor of this Church in 1853 he received an honorary degree of A.M. from Princeton College. In 1854 he received an appointment from the American Sunday School Union, and removed to Philadelphia, where he remained until the spring of 1861. In 1860 he received the honorary degree of D.D. from Washington College. He resigned in 1861 from this secretaryship. In retiring, Dr. Westbrook decided that whatever others might be able to do, he could not be a successful investigator and advocate of truth while dependent upon those to whom he might minister, for daily bread. Before leaving Philadelphia he received a unanimous call from the Fourth Presbyterian Church of that City, and also from the State Street Church of Albany, N.Y., and overtures from several other Churches in other cities. While not intending entirely to abandon the office of a public moral teacher, he entered the law department of the New York City University, and received in due course the degree of LL.B. He pressed ahead of his class, and before graduation was, in 1863, admitted to the New York Bar after a rigid examination of several hours, under the Judges of the Supreme Court. In 1860 he was admitted as attorney and counsellor in the Supreme Court of the United States at Washington, D.C. His practice was mainly in the New York Supreme Court. Thru the persuasion of Judge George R. Barrett and Col. Henry B. Mott, he was induced to make an investmant in Pennsylvania coal lands in the Clearfield region, and he afrerwards purchased 5000 acres of coal land in Cambria Co., Pa., and to develop and improve these lands, it became necessary to abandon his law practice, as the work was done under his personal supervision. Here his Pike county experience in boyhood came to his assistance. The "NATIVES" were astonished to find that a city lawyer and clergyman understood all about lumber and sawmills, and knew how to drive oxen, mules and horses. In 1882 he sold these lands, fully developed, and retired to his Philadelphia residence, "FREE FROM WORLDLY CARE AND AVOCATIONS." It is a fact worthy of note that while actively engaged in secular business he diligently pursued his studies in ecclesiastical history and polemic theology. In 1864 he was arraigned by his Presbytery on the charge of "ABANDONING THE MINISTRY AND ENGAGING IN SECULAR PROFESSION," and was suspended "UNTIL HE SHOULD GIVE EVIDENCE OF REPENTANCE." The suspension was removed in a few days, as Dr. Westbrook signified his purpose to preach as opportunity might offer. After this he supplied a Presbyterian pulpit for a year, and at the same time pursued his law practice in New York City, refusing to accept any pecuniary compensation from the Church, whereupon he was requested by the Presbytery to which the Church belonged to receive some pecuniary compensation or surrender the charge, and he accepted the latter alternative, and in a short time (1866) voluntarily withdrew from the ministry and communion of the Presbyterian Church," receiving a Certificate of his good and regular standing, following which time he maintained a position of ecclesiastical independence. In 1870 Dr. Westbrook published a work on "MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE." In 1882 he published a work entitled "THE BIBLE, WHENCE AND WHAT?" and in 1884 a work entitled "MAN, WHENCE AND WHITHER?" After this he engaged upon a work of profound research relating to the origin of Christianity and Comparative religions. In the Preface of his work on the Bible he said, "THE WRITER IS A FIRM BELIEVER IN THE EXISTANCE AND MORAL GOVERNMENT OF GOD IN THE CONTINUANCE OF LIFE BEYOND THE GRAVE, AND IN PRESENT AND FUTURE REWARDS AND PUNISHMENTS." His books, published by Lippincott & Co. Philadelphia were very favorably noticed by the newspaper press generally, and extensively circulated, and were well known as able defenses of the essential principles of true religion and morality, while dissenting from some of the dogmas of the present theology. The honorary degree of LL.D was received by Dr. Westbrook from the Wagner Free Institute of Science, Jan. 1, 1885 of which institution he was trustee and treasurer. He established a Free Religious Lectureship, in Philadelphia--receiving no pecuniary compensation for his lectures and paying all incidental expenses out of his own pocket.

Dr. Westbrook m. when 21 years of age, SARAH H. HALL, third dau. of Judge John H. Hall of New Jersey, and four children were born to them. The mother departed this life. Nov. 16, 1882, and he m. (2) Dr. HENRIETTA PAYNE, M. D., eldest dau of Rev. Ara Payne of Rhode Island. She was a graduate of the Womens Medical College of Pennsylvania, located at Philadelphia.

HON. JOHN COOLBAUGH WESTBROOK (No. 233-532) s. of Solomon and Hannah (Coolbaugh) Westbrook, was b. May 24, 1820, in Delaware Twp., Pike Co., Pa. on the old Westbrook homestead, which is now in Middle Smithfield Twp., Monroe Co., and was bp. Nov. 26, 1820, in the old Dutch Church at Walpack, N. J. He obtained his early education in the district school of his native place, and completed it at Milford under Rev. Allen. At the age of fifteen he became a clerk in his father's store, and upon the sudden illness of his father, he took charge of the store at Dingmans Ferry, assisted by Col. H.S. Mott; and, with his brothers, also managed the lumber business at Blooming Grove, which he continued to conduct until 1845, when he was elected on the Democratic ticket Prothonotary of Pike county. At that time the office of Prothonotary not only carried the duties of clerk of the several courts, but also included the duties of register of wills and recorder of deeds. He then removed to Milford, After serving in this capacity for six years--two terms--he returned to Blooming Grove and engaged in the lumber business and in clearing up a farm. He remained there for twelve years and during this time built a sawmill and gristmill. The sawmill was built in 1847, and the gristmill in 1855. He was again elected Prothonotary in the fall of 1863, and leaving his business in the hands of his brother Lafayette, he returned to Milford, and served six years more. In 1870 he removed to Branchville, N.J., and during the first year of his residence there, procured the land of various individuals for the Blooming Grove Park Co. in Pike county. This Association was projected by Wm. H. Bell of Branchville and Fayette S. Giles in 1870. John C. and Lafayette Westbrook deeded 13,000 acres of land to the Association, and they subsequently purchased a thousand acres additional. Mr. Giles was the first president. The stockholders gradually changed until most of it finally became held by New York parties. The lands laid in Blooming Grove, Greene and Porter Twps.; and included Lakes Beaver, Giles, Scott, Bruce, Westbrook, Laura, Ernest and Belle, according to the names which the Association gave them. One square mile of land was enclosed by a wire fence, as a breeding park, in which there were about 200 deer, at a time when deer were becoming quite scarce. The club-house was erected on ground overlooking Giles Lake, or Blooming Grove Pond, as it had formerly been known, at a cost of about $10,000.

In 1872 Mr. Westbrook went to Berks Co., Pa., and for three years acted as foreman in the construction of the Boston & South Mountain railroad, which was laid out to run from Harrisburg to Poughkeepsie. In the fall of 1875 he returned to Milford, and was again elected Prothonotary, which office he continued to hold, serving in all nearly fifty years. Socially, he and his family were also prominent. He joined the Masons at Hawley, and was a Master Mason, and was also a member of other orders. On Dec. 29, 1850, at Milford, he m. JANE WELLS, only dau. of Peter and Jane Wells, who was b. at Milford, Jan. 24, 1824. Both parents having died when she was but an infant, she was reared by her grandmother, Jane Wells

MOSES WILLS COOLBAUGH WESTBROOK (No. 233-535) s. of Solomon and Hannah (Coolbaugh) Westbrook, was b. Feb. 4, 1827, in Middle Smithfield, Pa., and was bp. June 24, 1827, in the old Dutch Church at Walpack, N.J. He spent his boyhood near the Delaware river at Dingmans Ferry, coming to Blooming Grove with his father in 1842. As already related, when the father became incapacitated, his sons took over his extensive lumber business in Blooming Grove. They continued together for many years, when Moses W.C. dissolved connexion with the business, after which he continued to engage in farming and lumbering, paying special attention, however, to his agricultural pursuits. He was a wide-awake business man of known ability, and had the entire confidence and esteem of his associates. In his home farm he had 350 acres, of which 100 acres were under excellent cultivation, and besides this place he owned 1000 acres of wild land. For fifteen years he conducted a tavern, and his pleasant home was filled with tourists and travelers most of the time, being located in the midst of the most beautiful scenery. At Milford he m. EMILY JONES, b. Aug. 22, 1827, in Sussex Co., N.J., dau. of Moses and Margerie (Brocar) Jones. JONATHAN JONES, FATHER OF MOSES, WAS A NATIVE OF WALES, AND SETTLED IN SUSSEX CO., N.J. ABRAHAM BROCAR, FATHER OF MRS. JONES, CAME FROM HOLLAND AND SETTLED NEAR READING, PA. Socially, Mr. Westbrook was a member of the Masons for over thirty years, and politically he was an ardent supporter of the Democratic party. He always took a commendable interest in public affairs, and, tho not an aspirant for political honors, he was called upon to fill most of the township offices, having served as school treasurer for 26 years, and as township auditor for many years. He materially aided in the development of all social, industrial, educational and moral interests, and was recognized as one of the most valuable and useful citizens of his community.

JACOB G. WESTBROOK (No. 264-732) s. of Gen. Abraham and Charlotte (Gumaer) Westbrook, was b. 1840, in Westbrookville, N.Y. He came with his parents to Waverly, N.Y., in 1847, who first made their residence in the home as of 1939 occupied by Francis Gibbs on Chemung St. for about three months. Then, purchasing the place on Elmira St. in West Sayre below South Waverly Boro, the family settled down to their long occupation of that site. Here our subject followed farming all his life, which may have been a factor in his rugged constitution, which extended upwards of the centennary mark. In his boyhood he assisted his father on the farm, and after his death continued to run the farm himself until he was nearly eighty years of age. Then he settled down into retirement, but continued his residence on the old homestead until 1926, when, with his dau., they moved to Waverly, where they continued to reside. In an interview on his 99th. birthday, the writer of the account, which appeared in the Elmira, N.Y. paper, has this to say:

"LOOKING AT LEAST FIVE YEARS YOUNGER THAN HE IS, JACOB G. WESTBROOK TODAY WAS UP AT AN EARLY HOUR AND PREPARING TO GREET HIS FRIENDS ON THE OCCASION OF HIS 99TH. BIRTHDAY. THERE IS VERY LITTLE ABOUT WAVERLY'S GRAND OLD MAN TO INDICATE HIS TRUE AGE. HE TIRES MORE QUICKLY PERHAPS THAN HE DID TEN YEARS AGO, BUT HE IS NOT A BIT LAME OR RHEUMATIC AS ARE MANY PERSONS OF ADVANCED YEARS. HE STILL CONTINUES OUTDOOR WALKS, HIS FAVORITE PASTIME, BUT THEY ARE SHORTER NOW. HE HAS COME TO ENJOY SHORT RIDES WITH HIS DAUGHTER, MISS FLORENCE WESTBROOK, OVER THE MANY NEW HIGHWAYS IN THE VICINITY, AND NEVER FAILS TO MARVEL AT THE IMPROVEMENT OVER THE DIRT ROADS OF HIS TIME, AND LIKES TO COMPARE THESE MODERN BRIDGES THAT SPAN THE CREEKS AND GULLIES WITH THE OLD WOODEN AFFAIRS OF YEARS GONE BY. IF HE LIVES TO REACH THE CENTURY MARK, MR. WESTBROOK SAYS HE INTENDS TO VOTE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION NEXT YEAR. HE HAS NEVER MISSED ONE SINCE HE CAME OF AGE." His wife was CLARA S. OVENSHIRE. Jacob G. was one of the Admrs. of his father's estate in 1878.

ISAAC V. WESTBROOK (No. 233-5223) s. of Jacob B. and Hannah J. (Van Gorden) Westbrook, was b. Feb. 12, 1847, in Delaware Twp., Pike Co., Pa., where he was reared and educated, during his boyhood attending the common schools, and after his father's demise, which occurred when he was six years old, he made his home with his grandfather VanGorden. He made farming his life occupation. He m. Apr. 24, 1870, in Lehman Twp., MARCENA HORNBECK, b. May 4, 1848, dau. of Jacob and Eliza Ann (Hetzel) Hornbeck of Lehman. Immediately following their marriage, they removed to Venango Co., Pa., where Mr. Westbrook engaged in the oil business for about a year. In 1871 he returned to Pike county, and purchased in Lehman Twp. the place which became his permanent home—a beautiful tract of fine river-bottom land, which paid him well for the years of labor he expended in its cultivation and improvement. He was go-ahead and energetic in all his work, and as a result of thrift and good management, which are characteristic traits of members of the Westbrook family, he gained a high standing among the successful and intelligent farmers of the township. He was well-informed on matters of general interest, and was well fitted to take the active part in public affairs to which his fellow-citizens called him, for he served ably and efficiently in various offices of local importance. He held the position of school director for three years, was assessor of his township, and in the spring of 1898 was elected auditor. In the spring of 1894 he was elected Justice of the Peace for a term of five years. Tho the requirements for the satisfactory discharge of his duties in these offices were many and varied, he always proved himself equal to them, and his public service was honorable and praiseworthy in every respect. He was a Democrat in political connexion. The Westbrooks had two children.

1. Mabel, b. May 4, 1872.
2. Lucien, b. Mch. 17, 1874; began teaching school in the district schools of Pike Co. when 17 yrs. of age & subsequently grad. from the State Normal School in East Stroudsburg, following which he taught at Milford, Pa.

JACOB B. WESTBROOK (No. 233-5224) s. of Jacob B. and Hannah J. (Van Gorden) Westbrook, was b. Apr. 9, 1853 in Delaware Twp., where he received his education and early training, attending the common schools. He was also a student for thirteen weeks at the Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. He was reared to farm life on the home place, remaining at home until twenty years of age, when he went to Freemansburg, Pa., to take a position as telegraph operator with the New Jersey Central Railway Co. Three months later he accepted a similar position at Irwin Station, on the Pennsylvania road, and there he continued for two years, after which he worked as extra for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. on the Pittsburgh Division, remaining in this employ for nine months. Then he engaged in commercial life, his first enterprise in that line being in partnership with A.S. Dingman, with whom he engaged in business in Apr. 1876, conducting a mercantile establishment at Dingmans Ferry for a year and a half, when the firm dissolved, and he continued on his own account. In 1894 he relocated his place of business, and here he built up an extensive trade, his customers coming from all parts of the surrounding country. His prosperity was due no less to his personal popularity than to his business ability, for he had a reputation second to none in the county for strict honesty and fairness in all his dealings, and he won the confidence and esteem of all who came in contact with him in any of the relations of life. As above remarked, he took a prominent part in the civil life of his community from early manhood, and his fellow citizens gave convincing proof of their confidence in his ability and fitness for public trust by selecting him for various offices of importance and responsibility. That he never fell below their estimate of him may be judged by his repeated elections;—he served as county chairman for five years; in 1887 he was elected county treasurer for a term of three years, and in 1894 was again the choice of the people for this office; he served many years as school director, and for five years acted as secretary of the school board; and he filled numerous township offices, in every incumbency discharging his duties with a systematic faithfulness and regard for the wishes of his constituents that could not fail to give satisfaction and win universal commendation. His political sympathies were with the Democratic party. Fraternally he belonged to the IOOF having been a member of the Lodge at Milford, and to FAM Lodge No. 344 at Milford. On Oct. 23, 1878 at Egypt Mills, Pike Co., he m. SARAH COLE, who was b. in Sussex Co., N.J., dau. of James H. and Elizabeth (Stearns) Cole, and they had five children.

JOHN HAROLD WESTBROOK (No. 292-94311) known as Harold Westbrook, s. of [illegible] Westbrook, b. June 17, 1897, spent his earlier years at Macedonia. He attended school in the old Macedonia Community Building, now the Odd Fellows Hall, in the "good old days." On one occasion the teacher, Miss Lamb, did not arrive for classes till nearly noon. She explained to the pupils that she "had to churn this morning!" At a meeting held in the Macedonia Community Building in Dec. 1919, J. Harold Westbrook and his sisters, Mary Ethel and Agnes Ellen, became members of the Wysox Presbyterian Church. For many years also, Mr. Westbrook was a member of Wysauking Grange, P.H., at Wy-Wysox, and received a Silver Certificate for twenty-five years continuous membership. He m. Mr. Westbrook's second wife, whom he m. Apr. 21, 1937, was HELEN JOSEPHINE VINCENT, b. Sept. 25, 1895, dau. of Joseph and Josephine (Robinson) Vincent. Disposing of the old homestead in Macedonia, Mr. Westbrook moved to Mountain Lake in Burlington Twp., going from there to Armenia Twp., Troy RD. While living here he served some time as township commissioner. During this time he made a transcript of all the old abandoned cemeteries on the Mountain, which will be found preserved in another part of This Volume (Vide ARMENIA). On Feb. 20, 1967 the Westbrook home on Armenia Mountain was destroyed by fire with all its contents. The conflagration was caused by electrical malfunction. Mr. Westbrook lost all his highly-prized heirlooms, and all the many historical records and papers he had accumulated over the years. He and his first wife had four children. One child by the second marriage died in infancy. Mrs. Helen J. Westbrook d. Feb. 12, 1972, and was bur. in the Standing Stone cemetery. Following her death, Mr. Westbrook moved to Sayre, Pa., and upon its completion, became a guest at Page Manor in Athens, Pa.

XVI. Rev. Chad Brown.

Rev. CHAD BROWN m. Sept. 11, 1626, at High Wycomb, England, ELIZABETH SHARPAROWE. He came, as we learn from his deposition, to New England with his wife Elizabeth, and their son John, in the good ship Martin, and landed at Boston, Mass., in the year 1638. He located himself and family in Salem, Mass., where he did not long reside. Entertaining religious and political sentiments in sympathy with Roger Williams, he went to reside with him in Providence, R. I., in 1642. Mr. Brown soon rose to prominence in Providence Plantation, where he merited and enjoyed the confidence of his fellow townsmen to an unlimited extent, receiving some of the highest positions of honor and trust in their power to bestow upon him. Having previously studied for the ministry, he was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Providence, where he was ordained in 1642 as the first settled minister of that Church. This point is disputed by some, who claim that Roger Williams was the first minister of that Church. Be that as it may, it is very evident that their labors with and for the Church were harmonious, and their ministry may have been an ideal, co-adjuting pastorate, premised on New Testament principles. He d. in 1665. In 1792 the City of Providence erected a monument to his memory. James Brown, a grandson of Rev. Chad, also served as pastor of the Providence Church, and three of his grandsons were patrons of Brown University, viz., Joseph Brown, LL.D., d. 1785; John, an eminent minister, d. 1803; and Moses

REV. DR. PHILIP BARNES COOK (No. 835-2A6; p. 8/1397, Cont.) s. of Joel, Jr., and Polly (Russell) Cook, was b. Jan. 17, 1832, in Orwell. He made a public confession of faith in the Presbyterian Church at Donaldson, Pa., at the age of sixteen. His preparatory studies were pursued at Rome, Pa., and Wyoming, Pa., chiefly under the Rev. Darwin Cook, his elder brother, and he graduated from Princeton University in 1857. Entering the Theological Seminary at Princeton in the fall of the same year, he took the full three years course there, graduating in 1860. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Luzerne (now Lackawanna) on Apr. 17, 1859, and was ordained an evangelist by the Presbytery of Vincennes (now Indiana) on Sept. 16, 1860. He engaged in work as a missionary in Greene Co., Ind., eight months after Apr. 1860. He was stated supply of the Churches of Bloomfield and Scofield Prairie, Ind., from 1861 to 1862. He served as chaplain to the 85th. Infantry of the U.S. Army from May 1862 to May 1863. He then supplied the Church at Bloomfield, Ind., again for a year, being also engaged in teaching during the same time. Upon the failure of his voice he was obliged to give up the work of preaching, and studied medicine, receiving the degree of M.D. from the Miami Medical College, Cincinnati, O., in 1866. He entered upon the practice of the medical profession in this year in Nikomis, Ill., remaining there until 1870. During the last three years he labored as a life insurance agent in connexion with his medical practice, at Indianapolis, Ind. Finding himself able to resume preaching he became stated supply of the Church at White Haven, Pa., in Sept. 1873, serving this Church until Nov. 1875. After this he resumed the practice of medicine in Kingston, Pa., from 1875—1883, and then in LeRaysville, Pa., until his death at the latter place, Apr. 13, 1907, of apoplexy, and was bur. at Orwell. He m. (1) Mch. 14, 1865, in Worthington, Ind., EMMA FRANCES LANGWORTHY, who d. Apr. 7, 1892. He m. (2) Sept. 5, 1895, at LeRaysville, MARY HAIGH, who survived him, with one son and three daus.

AVERY CHRISTOPHER COOK (No. 835-2A31; (p. 8/1397) s/o Cyrus and Caroline (Ellsworth) Cook, was b. May 21, 1841, at Potterville, and m. Dec. 20, 1865, THERSA AUGUSTA DARLING, b. at Potterville, Aug. 16, 1843, d. Dec. 22, 1923, dau, of Maj. Backus and Mary Jane (Beckwith) Darling of Orwell. After his marriage he established his farm, overlooking Potterville, above and near the farm which their daughter bought in 1929, later called "Kinderfarm." Next they acquired a larger farm, adjoining and overlooking Cooks pond, where they raised their daughters. This farm was later acquired by Ernest and Flora Cook Manchester, whose son Emmet now owns it. Mr. Cook's third and last farm was also on a hill, the other side of Cooks pond, overlooking Potterville. In his declining years the house was divided into two sections, one for Mr. Cook and his wife, and the other for Leo and Bernice Manchester Edsell, each family being more or less independent of the other. The young people ran the farm, yet looked after the old folk, an arrangement typical of that time. The Edsell's acquired the farm after the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Cook. Mr. Cook kept horses that were fast walkers for maximum output on the farm, and very fast smaller ones for the road. The general purpose farm wagon was low for pitching on hay, loading firewood for stoves, &c, with very wide, iron-rimmed wooden wheels for maximum spread and support over soft ground. He kept his horses and equipment in good condition, never overloading them. In his later years he had a hired man to do the heavy work. He was quite a showman, too. His pleasure was driving his buggy, calling on family and friends, and dispensing round, peppermint candies to eager children. Then, when he drove thru villages, but rarely on the open road, he would break his fast walking horse into a fast trot and go lickety-split. He was a big, handsome man, and with his full white beard and smart rig, cut quite a figure. He knew it, and loved the attention he received. Another of his indulgences was playing euchre, a card game, usually with his hired man after lunch. They would play at his desk, three games—no more, no less—then back to work. Mrs. Cook was retiring and most independent. In her later years she never liked to say goodbye, just vanished before the parting. Nor did she kiss with her lips—she just placed a forefinger on her lips first, and then on the cheek of the other person. Her laughter, which rippled her ample figure, was hearty and full of merriment, enjoyable to all. She outlived her husband by several years. They had seven daus. The old Hanford Directory for 1900 lists Avery C. Cook, P.O. Potterville, with 300 acres of land, 24 cows, thresher, living on road 23, opposite 22, north of Potterville. A.C. Cook gave $5 toward Church repairs at Orwell, Jan. 18, 1877. Letters of Administration on the estate of A.C. Cook of Warren Twp. were issued Jan. 18, 1918 to Jessie Cook Manchester.

HAVEN—HAVENS.

II.

The names Haven and Havens mean a harbor.

Two emigrants of the name established families in New England during the 1600's.

RICHARD HAVEN came from the west of England to Lynn, Mass., in 1645.

WILLIAM HAVEN is in a list of inhabitants at Portsmouth, R.I., in 1639.

CMXLI.

III.

RICHARD HAVEN, whose name appears in the preceding list of emigrants, was b. in Wales in 1617, and settled at Lynn, Mass., in 1636. He m. SUSANNA NEWHALL, (No. 3, Newhall Fam.) d/o Thomas and Mary Newhall, who came over in 1630 and soon settled at Lynn. She was a sister of Mary Newhall, who m. Thomas Brown the first, ancestor of Thomas Brown the fourth, the early settler of Browntown, Wyalusing, Pa., in 1783, and progenitor of a large and respectable family of the name originating in that area. (Vide Newhall Fam. in 162 Allied Fams., No. 3, p. 95; Thomas Brown Fam., p. 4, No. 1162). There is a deed, dated June 13, 1681, from John Westol of Saybrook, Conn., to the children of his "LOVING KINSMAN" Richard Haven of Lynn, carpenter, conveying 3000 acres of land in Hebron, Conn., which he had by the will of Joshua Sachem; particularly 1000 acres thereof to John, son of said Richard. It was executed with the marks and seals of the grantor, and Susanna his wife., and recorded by the town clerk of Hebron in 1718. Bk. I, p. 173). There is no record that these lands were ever conveyed by Richard's children. But there is a record in 1726 that one, Jonathan Page, AS HEIR OF RICHARD HAVEN, had 35 acres set off to him from "HAVEN'S RIGHT, IT BEING LAND LOST." This must have been a grandson of Richard's son Richard Jr. In his will, dated at Lynn, May 21, 1701, and approved June 14, 1703, Richard mentions son John Haven; son Nathaniel; grandson Joseph Haven, s/o my son Richard decd.; son Moses, who is to have my dwelling house and barn and all that lot of land where my house and barn now stands excepting what I give to my dau. MOSES HAVEN (No. L) s/o Richard and Susanna (Marshall) Haven, was b. May 20, 1667 at Lynn, Mass., and d. Nov. 14, 1747 [illegible] (1) 1688, MARY BALLORD, d/o Nathaniel and Rebecca (Hudson) Ballord, who was b. in Framingham, Mass., and d. Nov. 16, 1734. They had eight children. Moses was a freeman and removed to Framingham between 1702 and 1705. His first six children were b. at Lynn, the rest at Framingham. Moses participated in many activities in the community in which he lived. He was on a committee to lay out highways in 1708; selectman in 1710; constable in 1711; moderator and selectman 1712; on the committee to seat the meetinghouse in 1715; treasurer and moderator in 1717; selectman, treasurer, constable and moderator in 1718; treasurer and sealer of leather in 1719; on a committee to fill vacant seats in the meetinghouse in 1720; on the committee to hire a schoolmaster in 1723; on a committee to locate school in 1725; on a committee to hire a schoolmaster in 1727; moderator twice in 1730; and was also on a committee to confer with Mr. Swift about his salary. The Church records show that he was chosen Deacon on Mch. 29, 1717; that he was a delegate to the ordination of Rev. Mr. Barrett at Hopkinton on Sept. 2, 1724, on Mch. 21, 1725 "Deacon Haven spake that he should not hold forth the contribution box, because so few came to it." His wife d., and he m. (2) Nov. 27, 1735, ELIZABETH BRIDGES, prob. wid. of Benjamin Bridges. He m. (3) SARAH ..... who survived him. He received considerable property by the terms of his father's will, 1701, including his father's dwelling house and barn and the land that they stood on, also two lots of land lying in Ramsdell's neck, with all privileges and appurtenances belonging to said house and lands; but he was to pay off the other legacies mentioned by his father; he was also to have half the fruit that should grow upon the pippin tree in the orchard—which he had otherwise given to his dau. Hannah Goodall—for seven years. Moses' children also received £10 to be divided equally among them. Moses was the executor of the will.

JONATHAN HAVENS was b. Feb. 25, 1820 in Bradford Co., Pa., and d. 1863 in Grant Co., Ind. He m. Apr. 7, 1842, GABRIELLA CLARK, b. Feb. 25, 1820 at Tioga Point, as Athens was then known, d. ae. 103 at Eaton, Ind. They had eight children. Gabriella was d/o James I. and Susan E. (Simons) Clark. Newspaper accounts give lengthy details on her, and featured her as the oldest person in Indiana. The clippings were preserved but are badly yellowed and do not indicate the name of the newspaper. One account was on her 100th. birthday; another at 102. A short clipping had a penciled note that she d. in 1923 at age

103. She was the second of nine children. She recalled vividly the shower of stars which took place in 1833. In 1837 James H. Clark and his family rafted down the river on a craft 30X50 ft. with a cabin in the center. The raft was sold at Pittsburgh, and the party continued down the Ohio river by steamboat, landing at Lockport, O. From this point the family and goods were transported by wagon to Grant county, near Fort Greenfield.

Over corduroy roads from Muncie in Fairmount Twp., Gabriella assisted members of the family to drive the cows. It was a cold morning, Feb. 3, 1833, when the family came to what later was the Frank Wilson farm in Fairmount Twp. Here the Clark family built a cabin of split logs. The floor was made of Puncheons. A hard board door hung with wooden hinges and the door jambs were made of split logs. Flax was the most important crop at the time. The Clark family was joined by families headed by Dan Coleman, Gabriel Johnson and John Heavilin.

Jonathan Havens d. in 1863, leaving Gabriella with eight children. With no other help she finished clearing twenty acres of land.

The Clark's kept in touch with relatives back in Bradford Co., Pa. A letter from Eaton, Ind., addressed to Mrs. Theron Strope, and dated Mch. 17, 1922, gave a run-down on the family of Gabriella Clark Havens. It was written by Mrs. Emma Havens Peck, who was 64 years old.

The Havens farm in Grant county was only twelve miles from Marion. Mrs. Havens made the trip to pay her taxes each year until she was near 100 years old. Gabriella mentioned visiting a sister in Kansas. She also stated that her father lived to be 82 and her mother 90. She mentioned how her uncle Zeff Lane helped Negroes escape by the underground railway in Bradford county. One escapee was Fred Douglas, who became a renowned preacher. He returned to Bradford county and recognized Zeff Lane years later. Gabriella, Gabrella and Gabrilla are three spellings of her name that appear in the newspaper accounts. She apparently was called "Brilla" as a child. The Havens farm included a quarter section of land one and a half miles east of where Fowlerton now stands. Here he erected a double hewed log house.

SETH E. HAVEN, a farmer, had 171 acres, was a stock grower and had a dairy of 20 cows—quite an ambitious project for those days—and lived off road 20 in Columbia Twp., Bradford Co., Pa., in 1900, northwest of Austinville near the Tioga county line. His son Charles E. was at home with his father at the time. Seth Haven of Columbia Twp. d. July 18, 1928, and Letters of Administration on his estate were granted Sept. 18, 1928 to his eldest son, C.E. Haven: A.I. Havens was one of the bondsmen. He m. ADA M..... who d. Feb. 1, 1928. She made her will on July 26, 1919 at Austinville, and it was entered for probate on July 25, 1928. She left the use of her property to her husband Seth E. Haven for his lifetime, then to go to grandson Sterling Haven; in case of Sterling's demise before her, property was to go to his mother Lina; if she is not living it is to go to his brother William Staudt. Sterling's mother is to be Exx. Property fronted on north road, bounded south by Bert Willson, east by Frank Haven and west by Nellon McClure. Her father was a miller. Her husband was to pay the children $100 apiece,—to Frank, to Austin and to Lina out of Seth Haven's property.

*1. Charles E., m. Lina .....

*3. Austin S., m. Myrtle F.....
4. Lina; mentioned in will of mother Ada M., 1919—28.

CHARLES E. HAVEN (No. 1) eldest s/c Seth E. and Ada M., was at home with his father on the farm in 1900. He m. LINA ..... In her will grandmother Ada M.

Haven, 1819— 28, leaves her property to her grandson Sterling Haven in case of the demise of her husband Seth E. before herself. In case of Sterling's demise before her, it is to go to his mother Lina, and in case of Lina's demise, it is to go to "his brother William Staudt." Sterling's mother Lina was to be Exx. of the estate. It is assumed that Sterling was the son of Charles E.

AUSTIN S. HAVEN (No. 3) s/o Seth E. and Ada M., lived in Columbia Twp. and d. July 14, 1941. His wife MYRTLE ..... was b. Feb. 12, 1885, and still lives at Sylvania, ac. 93. Austin S. made his will Nov. 28, 1933, which was probated Aug. 5, 1941. He left his son Seth Edson Haven $1; he left his wife Myrtle M. all cash on hand, she also to have use of real estate during her lifetime; then he mentions seven children, who are to share and share alike, viz., Richard L. Haven, Eleanor Haven, Carlton Leon Haven, Alethe Haven, Raymond Haven, Freda Haven and Audrey Haven; wife to be Exx. On Sept. 12, 1941 value of estate was set to widow.

1. Seth Edson; left $1 in father's will, 1933-41.
2. Richard L.; res. 325 Elmira St., Troy, Pa.
3. Eleanor
4. Carlton Leon; res. Columbia Cross Roads, Pa
5. Alethe
6. Raymond; res. 104 Canton St., Troy, Pa. He served as police officer for Troy many yrs. When he started his first yr. in high school, he acted as "Hardy boy" around the old Troy Hotel, which was demolished in 1977. He waited on table, acted as bellhop, and fought his shoes with the ten-cent tips, which he was delighted to receive. He entered the police force in 1949 & became police chief the very same day. He was the only full-time officer until Feb. 1, 1959, when Ted York joined the force. Mr. Haven retired on Jan. 1, 1971, & Mr. York then became chief. Prior to 1954, Troy's only policeman had no office. He could be found, when not walking his beat, in the lobby of the Troy Hotel. That was his only office. On this point, Ted York interpolates, " I HAD A LITTLE NOTEBOOK IN MY SHIRT POCKET, AND THAT WAS MY OFFICE. THERE WERE NO FILES OF ANY KIND. WE PURCHASED EQUIPMENT AND MOST OF OUR CLOTHES OURSELVES " In those days the telephone office was above Smith's jewelry store, now VanDyke's jewelry. If there was a call for the police a red light was turned on at the phone company's window. Mr. Haven, sitting in the lobby of the Hotel, would watch for it out of the large plate glass window, & would either walk over to see what was needed or would use the hotel phone. Reminiscing, Mr. Haven recalled, " WHEN I WAS ALONE AT NIGHT I COULD WATCH MOST OF THE TOWN THRU THE WINDOW & WATCH FOR THE RED LIGHT. IN RETURN FOR THE USE OF THE SPACE, I WOULD ANSWER THE HOTEL PHONE, REGISTER LATE GUESTS, & WAKE UP SALESMEN WHO HAD LEFT AN EARLY CALL " Sometimes he had to show an unsteady customer to his room. It was a nice reciprocal agreement. Altho the population has not increased appreciably, there are now three full-time police officers, several part-time, & a number of auxiliary officers. This demonstrates how local crime has increased in recent yrs. It wasn't until 1956 that the first Troy police car was purchased. Before that the officers drove their own cars, & it was a struggle before they were allowed funds for five gallons of gas per week. The police had the use of a small storage shed after 21", It had been built onto the dining room door in 1933 after Prohibition was repealed & the hotel got a liquor license. The shed was built for the express purpose of providing cover for people who were too timid to be seen walking into the bar. Later, when people became braver, selling & buying took place in the open. Lottie Terrell owned the hotel at the time. She was interested in the police having their own station, & thru her kindness they got it. A 42 foot long addition was built onto one side of the hotel, which had in it room enough for both the police station & an insurance office occupied by Jerry Pierce. A sliding glass door was placed between the police office & Pierce's office. Mr. Pierce had the only phone, & he acted as sort of a dispatcher, handing the phone up to one of the police officers at the window until he died in 1956. The police obtained radio service in 1956. The police & other boro officers moved into their own building in the mid-1960's. The safe in the police office had been in Mr. Pierce's office, & it was moved to the new location in the bucket of a backhoe. It had originally belonged to the Northern Pennsylvania Power Co. Meter money was trundled down the street in a two-wheeled metal cart that Paul Reynolds had made, & Mr. Haven spent his Sundays wrapping pennies from the parking meters by hand. They averaged 30,000 pennies every month. It was hard work collecting the pennies in pails before Mr. Reynolds made the cart. It was heavy enough pushing the cart & several sets of rubber tires were worn out. In a reciprocal exchange of compliments, Mr. Haven & Ted York said, " WE OWE A LOT OF GRATITUDE TO KATIE NEWELL & HARRY PIERCE FOR HELPING US." to which Mrs. Newell responded, " I WAS HAPPY TO HELP. THE BOYS WERE GOOD TO ME & TO THE HOTEL " Several times her sharp eyes spotted a potential robber in the Hotel bar casing the joint & she promptly reported it to " THE BOYS " Mr. Haven grad. from Troy high school in 1928.

From The Desk Of Your

TWIG GENEALOIST.

ANOTHER YEAR had come-and-gone in the great Tide of Time and Eternity. Many of our friends at a distance remarked about this when renewing their annual friendship at the recent Yule Season. Time has wrought numerous changes in the lives of a number of those who have been following our work over the years. A partial roll-call may bring a number of noteworthy events to mind—some sad; others more joyous.

ALLEN—Mr. J. Francis Allen of Towanda lost his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sadie Ackley Frutchey of Frenchtown, Pa., on Dec. 21, 1978, at the advanced age of 89. She had always lived in the Frenchtown area, and in her earlier years was an old-time school teacher.

BAUMAN—Mrs. Clyde Bauman of Bloomsburg, Pa., a collateral descendant of the "Wyoming County" branch of the Coolbaugh family, made a tour of some of the places described in the "Coolbaugh Genealogy" as held in fond remembrance by some of the descendants of the different branches. She visited Monroe county and the Delaware valley, which was the Tribal Home of the entire Clan. At Coolbaugh, Pa., or Echo Lake, as it is now called, the descendants of Judge John Coolbaugh still operate the Post Office. At Tysox she visited the old Brick Coolbaugh Mansion on West Main Street, built by Daniel Coolbaugh in 1828. The present occupants, the Prof. James Ennis family, showed her all thru the house. She told all about her most pleasurable excursion at the Coolbaugh Reunion held near Tunkhannock in August. At this reunion, some of the guests took the last two remaining copies of the Coolbaugh Genealogy, published in 1938.

BRADFORD COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY—Plans a year of special emphasis on the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the March of General John Sullivan up the Susquehanna and Chemung river valleys and on into the "Genesee Country" to rid the area forever of Indian Massacres of the settlers, as had occurred at Wyoming the previous year.

CAMPBELL—Dr. Wm. A. Campbell of Athens, Georgia, has completed the monumental task of gathering in the many descendants of David Campbell of Blanford, Mass., in all lines, including the collaterals to the furthest degree, some of whom came to Burlington in Bradford county in pioneer days, and whose descendants hereabouts are now as numerous as "the sands of the sea." Some of the earlier ones erected two brick houses in that area which are still standing—one on the bank as you enter Burlington Boro from the east, and the other down Sugar creek a short distance on the old road toward Luthers Mills. The immense Luther Genealogy, which also embraces so many descendants from the same area, has also made its appearance.

CHRISTENSEN—Mrs. Sara Weaver of Seattle, Wash., mother of Dr. Daphne Christensen of Chicago, mentions that she must "Go Thru The Book Once More," before returning them to her daughter. She adds that she had often heard of "Wyoming," and the "Wyoming Valley," but had always "supposed" it was some area in the State of Wyoming. The Christensens, and particularly the Weavers, are interested in the Wilseys, who were early comers to the Troy, Pa., area.

PIBBLE—Mr. Bruce Pibble and family, for many years the popular proprietors of a series of groceries and markets in Hyalusing, Tyrex and Laceyville, have discontinued their Laceyville branch.

EASTABROOK—The Revelle Eastabrook family have terminated their extensive agricultural enterprise at South Hill in Orwell Twp., and parted with the old homestead, which had been in the family for so many generations.

ILL—Mrs. Arthur Ily of Elliot has also gone to her long home beyond the Sunset

KICK—The Kelvin Kicks have left lately to take up residence in the more equable clime of Oklahoma.

COSLINE—The Coslines of New Jersey have added a new "posting" to their "Family Tree."

GRAY—Paul Gray of Spring Hill received an honorable mention in the higher life in the prime of his earthly career. His sister has terminated their extensive dairy operation, but has kept and still resides at the old homestead.

HAMLIN—Mrs. Ruth Hamlin has abandoned the rigors of the Islandic winters for the gentle breezes of St. Simons Island, off the Georgia coast, made famous by visits from His Excellency "President Jimmy." These visits entail a great deal of activity in this resort area, she says.

LENT—Mr. Albert Lent III of Tucson, Ariz., is no longer with us. Just prior to his demise he completed a treatise entitled "BRADFORD COUNTY FARMER," a description of early agricultural life and methods as practiced around Bradford county in 1850, based on the diaries of his grandfather, Albert Lent the First. The project entailed a great deal of collateral research and study and ramification work, and to those with an agricultural background, has stirred many a fond memory of the "Joys of Yore."

McCRACKEN—Mrs. Paul McCracken of Towanda has also joined the Spirit World. She was a great "Genealogy Enthusiast."

O'[illegible]—Mrs. [illegible] O'Neill, [illegible], N. J., [illegible] their immense First Volume, c. 10[illegible] pages, of Bar[illegible] family trees. The project was [illegible] two cents [illegible] 40, with [illegible] time [illegible] of the Jamestown [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

SHIELDS—Mrs. John Shields of Palos Verdes, Calif., is collaterally descended from the Whitney and Woodburn families of the Rome area and the Thomas Brown family of "Brountown," Wyalusing, to name a few. She confesses that she became so absorbed in reading about some of the early exploits of her ancestors that she forgot the time of day.

VANBROCKLIN—The Walter VanBrocklins have also left Wisconsin for the "Sunshine State," having taken "early retirement" and moved to Florida. "He likes it," they say.

WATSON—Mrs. Fred Watson of Powell has lost her Life Companion and has sold their beautiful "CALEDONIA LODGE" estate there, and purchased a new home in North Towanda.

WERNESS—Mrs. Stanley Werness of Minneapolis is searching for statistics on CALEB WRIGHT, so that she might shore up her claim to membership in the SOCIETY OF MAYFLOWER DESCENDANTS.

Thus have we mentioned a few of our Many Friends Here-Ina-There, with a word or two about their activities or other events and interests in their busy lives.

WHEN YOUR EDITOR BEGAN HIS ACTIVITIES OVER HALF A CENTURY AGO, THIS TYPE OF RESEARCH WAS ALMOST UNHEARD OF. IT WAS USUALLY ENGAGED IN BY SOMEONE WHO WAS ENDEAVORING TO ESTABLISH SOME SORT OF A "Claim" TO AN INHERITANCE. WHEN VISITING IN THE WYOMING VALLEY, FOR INSTANCE, HE WAS ASKED ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS IF HE WERE TRYING TO SUBSTANTIATE SOME SORT OF A CLAIM TO THE RICH COAL DEPOSITS FOR WHICH THE REGION IS FAMOUS. AS OF NOW, "Everybody is doing it."

BECAUSE OF THE GREAT CALL FOR CEMETERY RUBBINGS, YOUR EDITOR HAS GONE THRU HIS MAMMOTH FILES AND SEARCHED OUT MANY OF THE CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS WHICH HE HAD ACCUMULATED OVER THE YEARS. MOST OF THESE WERE COPIED AT THE TIME WHILE FOLLOWING THRU ON THE RECORDS OF CERTAIN OF THE FAMILIES, AND DO NOT REPRESENT COMPLETE TABULATIONS OF ALL THE BURIALS AT THOSE SITES. HE ALSO HAS A TREMENDOUS FILE OF FAMILY PAPERS WHICH ACCUMULATED AT THE OLD HOMESTEAD OVER THE ONE HUNDRED AND FOURTEEN YEARS THAT THE PLACE WAS IN THE HANDS OF THE COOLBAUGH FAMILY, FROM WHEN IT WAS PURCHASED FROM THE ESTATE OF SAMUEL MOGER BY SAMUEL COOLBAUGH, UNTIL IT WAS SOLD BY THE EDITOR'S MOTHER, AGNES COOLBAUGH HOAGLIN IN 1948. SOME OF THE MEMORANDA ARE EVEN MUCH EARLIER THAN THAT, REACHING BACK TO ALMOST 1800. HE HOPES TO PRESENT ABSTRACTS OF SOME OF THESE, AS THEY PRESENT VIVID PICTURES OF EVERYDAY LIFE BACK IN THOSE DAYS, AND WILL ALSO BE OF ASSISTANCE AND INTEREST TO THOSE LIVING AT A DISTANCE, AS WELL AS PROVINCIALS, WHOSE FOREBEARS ONCE RESIDED IN THIS AREA.

CXLV—EARLY PRESIDENTS & VEEPS.

HOW MANY Presidents and vice-presidents can you name? It would have been easier in school if we had had this poem.

WASHINGTON AND ADAMS WERE THE FIRST TO BE ELECTED;
AND FOR A SECOND TERM THEY WERE AGAIN SELECTED.

ADAMS NEXT WITH JEFFERSON; THEN JEFFERSON WITH BURR;
THEN JEFFERSON A SECOND TIME, WITH CLINTON, I AVER.

MADISON WITH CLINTON; MADISON AGAIN WITH GERRY;
THEN MONROE AND TOMPKINS FOR EIGHT YEARS WERE STATIONARY.

NEXT JOHN QUINCY ADAMS AND CALHOUN WERE ELECTED;
THEN JACKSON AND AGAIN CALHOUN, WHO THUS WERE NOT NEGLECTED.

JACKSON AND VANBUREN WERE CHOSEN NEXT, YOU KNOW; VANBUREN THEN WITH JOHNSON—NOT THE FUTURE PRESIDENT, THO.

HARRISON WITH TYLER FOR A MONTH WAS AT THE HEAD;
THEN TYLER TOOK HIS PLACE, FOR HARRISON LAY DEAD.

NEXT CAME POLK AND DALLAS, IN EIGHTEEN FORTY-FIVE; TAYLOR, NEXT, WITH FILLMORE, AT THE WHITE HOUSE DID ARRIVE.

TAYLOR LIVED BUT FOURTEEN MONTHS, THEN FILLMORE TOOK HIS PLACE;
PIERCE AND KING WERE NEXT TO WIN THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE.

BUCHANAN CAME, WITH KING, "BACHELOR PRESIDENT," HE;
THEN CAME OUR MARTYRED LINCOLN, WITH HAMLIN, AS YOU SEE.

LINCOLN FOR A SECOND TERM WITH JOHNSON WAS ELECTED;
BUT IN A MONTH THE NATION MOURNED HIS DEATH, SO UNEXPECTED.

JOHNSON THEN WAS AT THE HEAD ERE GRANT AND COLFAX CAME; GRANT LEADS AGAIN, WITH WILSON, BEFORE HAYES' AND WHEELER'S NAME.

GARFIELD, THEN, WITH ARTHUR, WAS PRESIDENT FOR A SPACE;
BUT SIX MONTHS AFTER, ARTHUR TOOK THE MURDERED PRESIDENT'S PLACE.

WITH CLEVELAND, NOW, AND HENDRICKS, THE DEMOCRATS CAME IN;
BUT HARRISON AND MORTON NEXT THE LIVELY RACE DID WIN.

NOW CLEVELAND, FOR A SECOND TERM WITH STEVENSON CAME THERE; MCKINLEY FOLLOWED LATER IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIR.

—EDNA IONA LOCKE.

CXLVI—ELEVEN POOR BOYS.

JOHN ADAMS, SECOND PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, WAS THE SON OF A GROCER OF VERY MODERATE MEANS. THE ONLY START HE HAD WAS A GOOD EDUCATION.

ANDREW JACKSON WAS BORN IN A LOG HUT IN NORTH CAROLINA, AND WAS RAISED IN THE PINE WOODS FOR WHICH THE STATE IS FAMOUS.

JAMES A. GARFIELD SPENT THE EARLIER YEARS OF HIS LIFE HELPING TO DIG OUT A LIVING FROM A FARM IN NORTH CAROLINA. HE HAS SUCCESSIVELY BEEN A CLERK IN A COUNTRY STORE.

MILLARD FILLMORE WAS THE SON OF A NEW YORK FARMER, AND HIS HOME WAS A HUMBLE ONE. HE LEARNED THE RUDIMENTS OF A CLOTHIER.

JAMES BUCHANAN WAS BORN IN A SMALL TOWN IN THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAINS. HIS FATHER CUT THE LOGS AND BUILT THE HOUSE IN WHAT WAS THEN A WILDERNESS.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN WAS THE SON OF A WRETCHEDLY POOR FARMER IN KENTUCKY, AND LIVED IN A LOG CABIN UNTIL HE WAS TWENTY-ONE YEARS OLD.

ANDREW JOHNSON WAS APPRENTICED TO A TAILOR AT THE AGE OF TEN YEARS. HE WAS ILLITERATE. HE WAS NEVER ABLE TO ATTEND SCHOOL, AND PICKED UP ALL THE EDUCATION HE EVER HAD.

ULYSSES S. GRANT LIVED THE LIFE OF A VILLAGE BOY, IN A PLAIN HOUSE ON THE BANKS OF THE OHIO RIVER, UNTIL HE WAS SEVENTEEN YEARS OF AGE.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR WAS BORN IN A LOG CABIN. HE WORKED ON THE FARM UNTIL HE WAS STRONG ENOUGH TO USE CARPENTER'S TOOLS, WHEN HE LEARNED THE TRADE HE AFTERWARDS WORKED ON A CANAL.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S FATHER WAS A PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER WITH A SMALL SALARY AND A LARGE FAMILY. THE BOYS HAD TO EARN THEIR LIVING.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY'S EARLY HOME WAS PLAIN AND COMFORTABLE, AND HIS FATHER WAS ABLE TO KEEP HIM IN SCHOOL.

CXLVIII—EVOLUTION.

FIRST HE WAS A POLLYWOG, BEGINNING TO BEGIN;
THEN HE WAS A TOAD, WITH HIS TAIL TUCKED IN.
THEN HE WAS A MONKEY IN A BANYAN TREE;
THEN HE WAS A DOCTOR, WITH A PH. D.

A POLLYWAG, A TOAD FROG, A MONKEY AND A MAN!
GLORY BE TO NATURE FOR THIS GREAT BIG PLAN!

SAID THE SCIENTIST TO THE PROTOPLASM
"TWIXT YOU AND ME THERE IS A MIGHTY CHASM,
WE REPRESENT EXTREMES, MY FRIEND—
YOU THE BEGINNING, I THE END."

THE PROTOPLASM MADE REPLY
AS HE TWINKLED HIS EMBRYONIC EYE,
"WELL, WHEN I LOOK AT YOU, OLD MAN,
I'M RATHER SORRY I BEGAN!"

CONKLIN VII.

A FOURTH MARRIAGE REGISTER.

MARRIAGE RECORDS ARE THE MOST NEBULOUS RECORDS TO BE PRESERVED OR RETRIEVED. BIRTHS AND DEATHS ARE REMEMBERED REGULARLY BY MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY, AND BY FRIENDS, PRESERVED ON GRAVESTONES, OBITUARIES, CLIPPINGS, SCRAPBOOKS, AND EVER-SO-MANY OTHER WAYS. BUT MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARIES ARE RECALLED WITH DIFFICULTY, MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES BECOME LOST OR MISLAID OR DISINTEGRATE; OLD BIBLES ARE THROWN OUT, OR PASS TO COLLATERAL DESCENDANTS BEARING OTHER NAMES, OR END UP AT AUCTIONS AND SECOND-HAND STORES AMONG OTHER OLD BOOKS. PASTORAL, PARISH AND JUSTICE RECORDS ARE FORGOTTEN, OR END UP HUNDREDS OF MILES DISTANT FROM THE SCENE OF ACTION. SEARCHING FOR MARRIAGE LICENSES IN COUNTY CLERK OFFICES IS TEDIOUS AND TIME-CONSUMING, AND VERY OFTEN FRUITLESS, ESPECIALLY IF ONE DOES NOT KNOW WHERE THE LICENSE MAY HAVE BEEN OBTAINED. SOME ARE PRESERVED BY BUREAUS OF VITAL STATISTICS.

FOR THESE REASONS THE FOLLOWING REGISTER IS MADE AVAILABLE, TO INSURE ITS PREMANENT PRESERVATION. IT WAS KEPT BY WILLIAM H. CONKLIN, FOR MANY YEARS A JUSTICE OF THE PEACE IN WYSOX TWP., BRADFORD CO., PA. AS PREDICATED ABOVE, HIS OLD DOCKET BOOK WAS LEFT ABANDONED IN THE ATTIC OF THE OLD CONKLIN VICTORIAN MANSION ON THE ROAD BELOW MYERSBURG IN THAT COMMUNITY, AND WAS RETRIEVED BY YOUR EDITOR. A SHORT SKETCH OF MR. CONKLIN'S LIFE MAY BE FOUND IN ARTICLE NO. CCXXXVI, CONKLIN FAMILY III, PP. 7-8.

Wysox Landmark

The old Ptollet mansion in the top picture shows not only the immensity of the building but also some of the signs of wear on the roof as well as the broken windows and pockmarks in the bricks on the wall on the right side of the photo. The middle photo was taken from the first floor looking directly up at the mansion's rotunda. In the bottom picture the new owner, Sam Fulmer, leafs through one of the few books left from the library. He is standing before the stately double staircase. Also visible in the picture is one of the hand-painted ceilings.

The top picture gives a closeup of the damaged slate roof, one of the first repairs Mr. Fulmer plans.

The legend of the tunnel used in the underground railroad comes to nothing in the bottom picture as Mike Lehto, one of Mr. Fulmer's workers, points to a small opening in one of the basement walls. Alas! No entrance to a tunnel—it's only the wine cellar.

BONNEVILLE...CASTLE

BONNEVILLE CASTLE was the ancestral home of the Piollet family in France. The local mansion was patterned after the original structure, and for a time the home messuage was called BONNEVILLE FARM.

As already noted, the photos were taken at the time Mr. Fulmer acquired the property. It had been allowed to deteriorate shamefully, as described in the accompanying article. He immediately set about restoring it to its original grandeur as much as possible. Here he established what has become known as FULMER'S SHOPPING CENTER, a true "variety store," featuring a wide assortment of merchandise and services. He had launched his business with a gasoline service station, out in the point, where all five roads intersect, in front of the house. When that building burned, he transferred his activities to the mansion house. One of the photos shows the double staircase originally at the front entrance. Mr. Fulmer removed the one on the right side, and the site is now occupied by the cashier's counter. Each of the downstairs rooms features a different type of merchandise. The first one at the right displays baked goods, ice cream, soft drinks, fresh fruits and vegetables. Back of this is a cross-hall, opening onto the wing to the right of the picture, and featuring a great variety of hardware items, household gadgets, tools, dishes and the like. To the right of this, in what was originally the library, is a room featuring mainly men's furnishings, clothing, sporting goods, ready-to-wear garments, footwear, &c. Advancing on to the back corner is a large room containing all types of everyday grocery needs. Toward the front, underneath the remaining staircase, one runs into a useful drug and home remedy department. Along the itinerary one also catches a glimpse of candies and bonbons, tobacco products, and one can even get a key duplicated at one stand, or pick up an electrical receptacle, replacement bulb or fuse. Arriving back at the front entrance one finds a great variety of local and big-city newspapers, magazines and paperbacks. And out in the front yard are the self-service gasoline pumps, from which the business first started. And the garage service station was rebuilt in a new structure attached to the northwest corner of the main building, or left-hand corner of the picture. Naming the place "SHOPPING CENTER," is a perfect designation. In other words, it is equivalent to saying, "YOU NAME IT—WE HAVE IT!"

It should be added that more recently the Fulmer's removed the cupola from the building, it having become unsafe. Mr. Fulmer was also unable to replace the majestic arched upper window sashes. It was necessary to board up the arch and replace with square sashes.

Mr. Fulmer's youngest son, Dale, is now in full charge of the business

When was the house built? This is a moot question. Mr. Fulmer has listed the date "1857" on his business sign. But the Wysox Church, on the Rome Road, and the Coolbaugh mansion, on West Main St., were both built in 1828, from brick made in the Coolbaugh brickyard on their farm. There was a very extensive brick manufacturing industry in Wysox about this time. History records that the first brick building erected in Towanda Boro was a house put up by Andrew Irvine, also in 1828, next to the old Patten block, on the right side of Main St. between Bridge and Pine, and from bricks obtained from Wysox. There do not seem to be any cornerstones on the Wysox brick buildings, but This Writer believes that it might be established sometime that the two Piollet houses and their store building, which now houses Schoonover Electronics, and the Coolbaugh brick store, now occupied by the Lewis Gun Shop, were all built along about the same time, from bricks made locally.

In the photograph taken of the roof of the mansion, the "RED ROCKS," notable cliff at the eastern end of the Wyoox Valley, is faintly discernable in the upper right-hand background. A closer view of the same mountain will be found accompanying the article "STORMING THE HEIGHTS," on another page of This Series. (No. DCLXXII).

SOUTH HERRICK CEMETERY.

THIS LITTLE CEMETERY IS LOCATED IN HERRICK TWP., SOUTH OF THE VILLAGE OF HERRICKVILLE, ON THE ROAD TO CAMPTOWN, OR PENNSYLVANIA STATE HIGHWAY NUMBER 06025. A LITTLE TOWNSHIP ROAD TURNS OFF THE MAIN ROAD, AND LEADS BACK IN TOWARD THE BALLIBAY SECTOR OF HERRICK TOWNSHIP. IT IS SOMETIMES CALLED DURANDS CORNERS, FROM THE FAMILY RESIDING NEARBY, AND THE CHURCH WAS DURAND CHURCH FOR THE SAME REASON. FOR MANY YEARS THERE WAS A THRIVING PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION ON THE CORNER, AS THAT WAS THE DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION OF MANY OF THE EARLY INHABITANTS. THE BELOVED M.L. COOK OF MERRYALL (Vide Cook Fam. p. 5/1398) CONDUCTED DIVINE WORSHIP THERE FOR MANY YEARS. THEN, WITH THE ADVENT OF THE AUTOMOBILE, AND THE INTRODUCTION OF HIGHER CRITICISM AND THE GENERAL DEPARTURE OF THE PROFESSING CHURCH FROM THE AMENITIES OF THE HISTORIC CHRISTIAN FAITH WITH ITS EMPHASIS ON THE INNATE DEPRAVITY OF THE HUMAN SOUL AND THE NECESSITY FOR THE NEW BIRTH, INTEREST WANED, AND THE CHURCH WAS CLOSED FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS. AND THEN, WHEN A LARGE PORTION OF THE SHEET STEEL ROOF WAS BLOWN OFF BY A BAD SUMMER WIND-AND-RAIN STORM, THE STRUCTURE WAS SOLD BY LACKAWANNA PRESBYTERY, AND THE LUMBER USED TO ERECT A DWELLING HOUSE IN STANDING STONE CENTER. THE BURIAL GROUND WAS PART OF THE CHURCH PROPERTY, AND ACCESS IS GAINED FROM THE TOWNSHIP ROAD. THOSE WHO HAVE COPIES OF THE MAP OF CENTRAL BRADFORD COUNTY THAT ACCOMPANIES THE ARTICLE ON LAKE WYSAUKING IN THIS SERIES, CAN FIND THE LOCATION OF THE CEMETERY BY CONSULTING THAT MAP.

CMLXXXVII.

BUMPVILLE OR SOUTH LITCHFIELD CEMETERY.

BUMPVILLE COMMUNITY IS LOCATED ON PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATIVE ROUTE 08087 IN ROME TWP., BRADFORD CO., PA., SOMEWHAT BETWEEN NORTH ROME AND NORTH ORWELL. IT WAS ONCE A SCHOOL DISTRICT IN THAT TOWNSHIP, KNOWN AS DISTRICT NO. 6, OR NORTH ROME DISTRICT. WHAT IS NOW NORTH ROME WAS THEN CALLED CENTRE VALLEY. THE OLD SCHOOL DISTRICT, WHICH WE SHALL DESIGNATE AS BUMPBILLE, TO OBVIATE CONFUSION WITH THE PRESENT NORTH ROME AREA, WAS QUITE EXTENSIVE. IT REACHED ALL THE WAY ON THE WEST TO THE SHESHEQUIN TWP. LINE IN THE BULLARD CREEK VALLEY; TO THE NORTH WAS LITCHFIELD TWP., WITH A SMALL SECTOR BORDERING ON WINDHAM TWP. ON THE NORTHEAST. TO THE EAST WAS DISTRICT NO. 9, ALONG PARKS OR BATTLE CREEK, WITH SCHOOLHOUSE NEAR HARRINGTONS CORNERS. AND SOUTH OF IT WAS THE TOWNER HILL DISTRICT, WITH A SMALL SEGMENT BORDERING ON CENTRE VALLEY DISTRICT ALONG THE SOUTHWEST LINE. THE SCHOOL BUILDING WAS NEAR BRENCHLEYS CORNER. MOST ALL THE YOUNGSTERS HAD TO TRAVEL ONE OR MORE STEEP HILLS TO REACH THE "SEAT OF LARNIN."

A UNION CHURCH WAS BUILT IN 1864 IN THE BUMPVILLE COMMUNITY BY REV. SMITH LENT (Vide p. 24/1209 Lent Fam. In this Series), WHICH IS STILL STANDING, AND OCCUPIED EVERY SABBATH BY AN ENTHUSIASTIC GROUP OF WORSHIPERS. THE INTERIOR IS FINISHED IN VARNISHED SOLID OAK HARDWOOD, AS WERE MANY CHURCHES AND SPECIAL PLACES IN THOSE DAYS, WITH BELL IN THE STEEPLE. AT THIS WRITING AN ADDITION AND MODERNIZATION PROJECT IS IN PROGRESS AT THE SANCTUARY. THE CEMETERY IS LOCATED ATOP THE HILL STRAIGHT PAST THE MEETINGHOUSE ON A VERY ILL-KEPT TOWNSHIP ROCK-INFESTED ROAD, ESPECIALLY ON THE NORTH APPROACH. IT IS IMMEDIATELY ABOVE THE LINE SEPARATING ROME FROM LITCHFIELD TWP., THE CEMETERY BEING LOCATED IN THE LATTER MUNICIPALITY, OR THE ROAD FROM BUMPVILLE TO VANTER, HENCE, IT IS ALSO KNOWN AS THE SOUTH LITCHFIELD CEMETERY. MANY PIONEERS WERE BURIED HERE, AND IT IS STILL IN ACTIVE USE.

BRIEF SKETCHES OF SOME BUMPVILLE FAMILIES.

THE FOLLOWING BRIEF NOTES ON SOME OF THE FAMILIES WHO HAVE LIVED IN THE BUMPVILLE AREA OVER THE YEARS, HAVE BEEN APPENDED AS A SOURCE OF QUICK REFERENCE, AND MAY BE OF GENERAL INTEREST TO THOSE FAMILIES CONCERNED, AND TO OTHERS LIVING IN THAT AREA.

ARNOLD (CMLXXXVIII). The ancient lineage of the arnold family is referred to in 162 Allied Families, p. 40, of This Series. The line has been traced to Ynir, king of Gwentland, Wales, in 1100 A.D.

THOMAS and WILLIAM ARNOLD, brothers, and sons of Thomas of Cheselbourne, Dorset, England, both came to Hingham, Mass., in 1635, and the next year settled at Providence, R.I.,

WILLIAM ARNOLD, in all probability a descendant of one of these, b. 1754, in the spring of 1797 left Rhode Island and settled in Warren Twp., Bradford Co., Pa. That area was known as the Rhode Island Settlement because most of the early settlers there were from that State. A sister of William, Mrs. Preserved Buffington, having been among the group, WILLIAM ARNOLD, a son of William the Warren pioneer, was the father of GEORGE PENDLETON ARNOLD, who, along with two sons, ADDISON CLEFT and ALMERRIN, are inhumed at Bumpville. Addison C's son, LEE ELMER ARNOLD, known as Elmer, lived at the foot of Bumpville hill on the Brenchley place. He was much interested in the work of the Church in his community. His dau. MARIE, was the wife of HOWARD I. ARNOLD of Athens, the latter a brother of HARRY C. ARNOLD. Another son of Lee Elmer Arnold is CLAUDE BERNARD ARNOLD, known as Bernard, a prominent resident of Rome Boro. BENEDICT ARNOLD, another son of the Warren pioneer, was the father of CHAUNCEY WESLEY ARNOLD, whose son, CHAUNCEY OSCAR, was the father of HARRY CLINTON ARNOLD of Vawter, among whose twelve children were the Triplet Arnold Boys,—Willis Brenchley, Walter Emerson, and Wallace Howard. Their brother, Claude Newell Arnold, occupied his father's homestead and d. Jan. 5, 1970, with burial at Bumpville. Chauncey Lloyd, another of the sons, known as Lloyd Arnold, has a farm at Bumpville, and is one of the deacons of the Church. Walter Emerson, one of the triplets, d. Feb. 7, 1971, and was bur. at Bumpville.

BIDLACK (CMLXXXIX). CHRISTOPHER BIDLACK or BIDLAKE was b. 1661 in England, and settled at Ipswich, Mass., in 1692, where his first wife died in that year. He d. Feb. 22, 1740 in Windham, Conn.

BENJAMIN BIDLACK, s/o Christopher, was b. in England and d. at Windham, Conn., Feb. 22, 1740, the same day as his father, cause unknown.

CAPT. JAMES BIDLACK came to the Wyoming Valley of Pennsylvania, and fell in the Wyoming Massacre, in 1778. He and his three sons all bore arms in that conflict. Capt. James, while leading his men, was seized by the savage fiends and thrown on the burning logs of the fort, and held there with pitchforks and tortured until he expired. His wife, ABIGAIL FULLER, afterwards m. (2) Col. JOHN FRANKLIN, great champion and idol of the connecticut settlers on the Susquehanna, and they came to East Athens in 1789. STEPHEN BIDLACK, her elder son, m. Lois Ransom, d/o Capt. Samuel Ransom, another great patriot of the Wyoming Valley. JAMES BIDLACK III, the younger son, came to Athens in 1789 with his mother and Col. Franklin. He settled first in Sheshequin and afterwards at Ghent, where his son, Daniel M., afterwards lived, in the area of the former Ghent Church. Mr. Bidlack was accidentally killed in 1828 while loading a raft at Sheshequin. The Bidlack family have continued to be numerous in Sheshequin and Rome Twps. and eastern Bradford.

BRADLEY II (XM). The Bradley family have been numerous in the Bumpville—Vawter region for many years. F. A. BRADLEY m. Sarah (Eastman) Richards, d/o Lucius and Sally (Parker) Eastman of Bumpville and grda. of Samuel Parker, Bumpville pioneer. CLAUDE BRADLEY, a present member of the family, b. 1904, has always lived in the Vawter area, and has operated a machine shop there since 1940. In 1938 he purchased a farm and built himself a welder and learned how to use it. In 1945 he bought a new one and drove all around the country with it for thirty years, fixing up machinery for folk who called him. One specially remarkable undertaking was a large V snowplow for Rome Twp. His neighbor Claude Arnold helped him with this enterprise. They welded two 4 x 8 ft. 18-gauge boiler plates together and bent them into a curve with a maul. "THEY RUNG JUST LIKE A BELL WHEN THEY WERE POUNDED," recalled the old gentleman. "LATER THE STATE GOT HOLD OF THE PLOW SOMEHOW, AND THEY WENT ALL OVER WITH IT PLOWING SNOW." Mr. Bradley also built a three-passenger cab onto the plow. Another device he rigged up was a garden tractor with a Maytag washer motor fastened onto wheelbarrow wheels with bars welded on for re-enforcement. "IT RUN GOOD.... BETTER THAN THE ONES THEY MAKE TODAY," he recalled with a twinkle. He built many "DOODLE-BUGS," or "PUDDLE-HOPPERS" for farmers and others during World War II, "WHEN YOU COULDN'T BUY ANYTHING NEW;"—made from the front end out of an old car and the rear axle, and maybe two transmissions. Mr. Bradley was also an excellent carpenter, and built a number of houses. Few men indeed have been endowed with greater inventive skill than he. His son Karl has succeeded to the machine shop enterprise, much to the satisfaction of their many friends and neighbors.

BUMP. (XMI). BUMPVILLE received its name from REUBEN BUMPUS, an old Revolutionary soldier from Dutchess Co., N.Y. He was b. at Sharon, Conn., ca. 1761, and received a pension for his services in that conflict. He came to Sheshequin in 1800 and on to the Bumpville area. In 1806, Mr. Bumpus was a great hunter and could recite many a tale of the chase. His wife, Phoebe Gibbs, was a sister of Russell Gibbs, another pioneer in the area, and they are bur. in the Bumpville cem. They had no children.

DRAKE II (XMII). JAMES DRAKE was a farmer in Litchfield. He m. HENRIETTA MERRILL, d/o Milo Merrill. Their son was Charles E. Drake, late popular sheriff of Bradford county.

EASTMAN (XMIII). ROGER EASTMAN was b. in Wales in 1611, and came from Langford, Wiltshire, England, in 1638 in the ship "Confidence," settling at Salisbury, Mass. JUSTUS EASTMAN, a descendant, b. 1777 in Ashford, Conn., m. Sally Farnham and settled at Kingston, N.Y. LUCIUS EASTMAN, his son, came to the Rome area, as did also George W. Eastman, another son, in 1840 from Guilford, N.Y., and located on Orwell Ridge, where his descendants are still prosperous farmers and leading citizens. Lucius m. SALLY PARKER, d/o Samuel and Elizabeth (Grover) Parker of Bumpville, b. Nov. 10, 1815, d. Jan. 3, 1881, and both are bur. at Bumpville.

EIKLOR (XMIV). JOHANN or JOHN HENDRICK ECKLER, b. 1711, arrived at Philadelphia, Sept. 25, 1732, with Palatines imported in the ship Loyal Judith. There were 115 Palatines aboard, He was age 21. ANDREAS ECKLER or AIGLER m. Maria Bortern. Andreas Egler, b. 1710, at the age of 19, on Apr. 15, 1729, took his first communion in the Lutheran Church at Newtown, Long Island. ANDREAS Jr. m. Maria Schram and lived at Leeds, N.Y., near Catskill. Two of their children were: ELIZABETH, b. 1755, m. Capt. Jesse Allen and came to Wysox, Pa., in 1784, ancestor of the Jesse Allen Family of Bradford county (qv); and FREDERICK. Frederick Eiklor followed his brother-in-law, Jesse Allen, to Wysox about 1786. He built and occupied a house in Towanda on the east side of Main St. shortly below Pine, where Fairchild's Gift Center was recently established. This place burned, so in 1792 he joined his former Catskill neighbors, Henry Lent (qv) and Godfrey Vought, in the Rome settlement. In 1800 his wife died, being the first death in Rome Twp. The first school was taught by Mr. Eiklor in 1803 in a log house within the present Rome Boro. His wife, SARAH BAKER, was d/o Samuel Baker, an Englishman. The Eiklor young folk were long remembered as "SWEET SINGERS, WHOSE VOICES WERE ALWAYS HEARD AT THE OLD-TIME PARTIES." Most of Mr. Eiklor's family went back to Catskill. But his son, ANDREW III, remained, and is the ancestor of those of the name still to be found in the Rome area and thereabouts. Another son, DAVID, m. Dena Huyck, d/o William Huyck of Standing Stone, lived in that community some years, and then removed to Huron, Ohio.

GIBBS (XXV). RUSSELL GIBBS came from Vermont to Sheshequin in 1799 and on to Bumpville with his brother-in-law, Reuben Bumpus, in 1806. He and his wife are bur. in the local cem.

MERRILL (XXVI). THOMAS MERRILL was at Hartford, Conn., about 1646. Whether or not he was the ancestor of the family here under consideration, we cannot state, as there were several others of the name in New England at an early day, including JEREMIAH MERRILL, who was at Boston before 1652, and NATHANIEL and JOHN MERRILL, brothers, who were at Newbury, Mass., in 1635 and 1640, resp. ABRAHAM MERRILL was originally from Hartford, Conn. his son, ELEAZER MERRILL, m. REBECCA WOODRUFF. Two of their sons, ELEAZER Jr., and SOLOMON, came to Litchfield, Pa., in the spring of 1803. Their parents followed them in 1806, and remained with them the rest of their lives.

1. Solomon, b. 1770, m. Abigail Stoddard.
2. Eleazer b. 1772, m Nancy Booth
3. Abijah.
4. Joshua.
5. Rebecca, m. Daniel Doane of Windham Center or Doanetown, as it is popularly designated by provincials. Mr. Doane was the 2d. permanent settler in Windham Twp., having come in the fall of 1800. Rebecca was his 2d. wf.; his 1st was SALLY COLE, mother of his children

ELEAZER MERRILL Jr. (No. 2) b. 1772, with his brother, Solomon, came from Farmingham, Conn., to Litchfield, Pa., in the spring of 1803, and began improvements on the land which they had purchased under Connecticut title. Another account says they came in November 1803 and stopped at the Christopher Schoonover (qv) place at the State line on the river flats, in the northwest corner of Litchfield Twp., where they remained until Feb. 1804, while they were building their log house. Then they chopped and burned fallows and sowed grain and returned East for their families with whom they arrived at their uninvlting homes in November. The Merrill's were Godfearing and heroic pioneers, enduring uncomplainingly the privations and hardships incident to life in a great wilderness. Religious zeal has been a characteristic inherent down thru succeeding generations in the family, and is noteworthy at the present time. Of Eleazer it is related that he was reared under Calvinistic influences, afterwards was a member of the Methodist Church, and died a firm believer in Universal salvation. He m. NANCY BOOTH and d. STRUBLE II (MI). LEON STRUBLE m. May 10, 1924, ETHEL BELLE EIKLOR, b. Oct. 18, 1899, d/o Godfrey and Mary J. (Miller) Eiklor of North Rome and desc. of pioneer Frederick Eiklor (qv). Their son, LEON STRUBLE, m. CORA RINKER, d/o Leland W. and Hettie Mattie (Arnold) Rinker of Windham Summit, and live at Athens. They have a dau. PATRICIA and a son.

TOWNSEND. (MII). ELIJAH TOWNSEND was one of the early settlers of Wysox in the area of Laning creek, or the golf course, Rev. William Colbert (qv) the first Methodist circuit rider thru this area, 1792, met regularly with the Townsends on his itinerary. He sold out to John Hinman in 1793 and left the area. His son, or possibly brother, was HEZEKIAH, m. HANNAH SHAW, d/o Jeremiah Shaw of Sheshequin, and their son, ELIJAH, settled in Rome Twp.

VANSICE. (MIII). Variants, VanSysen, VanSase, VanCise, &c. JOOST CARELSEN VANSYSEN came over from Holland and settled at New Amsterdam as a single young man before the year 1654. He seems to have arrived as a sailor or boatswain. Later he was a ship owner and ship builder. On June 15, 1654 he attached the sloop of Thomas Adamsen so as to obtain the monthly wages still due him. He m. in 1657, CHRISTINA JANS, d/o Jan ———, commonly known as Styntje Jans. Like many other New Netherlanders he was popularly as well as officially known by his patronymic as Joost Carlsen, i.e., Joost the son of Carel. All his children were at first known by their patronymic "Joosten," but when grown up and married, all bore the full name of Van Sysen. This was not an innovation, but the revival of the "dormant" family name so common among New Netherlanders. In Holland the name Van Sysen existed before the year 1650. Also, when the British gained possession of New Netherland, they decreed that every Dutchman adopt a permanent surname. At New Amsterdam Joost Carlsen was a shipbuilder in partnership with Hendrick Lambertsen Mol. Their shipyard was located on the East river at Smit's Valley, then in the northeastern city limits. The ground was purchased before May 17, 1681 from Rachel van Tienhoven. The buildings on the ground were erected immediately after the purchase. The dwelling house of the family where most of the children were born, was also built there. Joost and his wife Christina were still living in their home in 1703, and were both stated to be over 60 years old, and are listed in the census of that year as "Jos Carlsee." Both he and his wife are believed to have been born around 1635. From his Church membership papers it is evident that he was originally from Middelberg in Zeeland.

II. JOHANNE JOOSTEN VanSYSEN, s/o Joost Carelsen, was b. Dec. 2, 1670 at New Amsterdam and d. there Nov. 29, 1757. He m. July 27, 1698, JUDITH VERWEY or VanWie, who was b. at Albany, then known as Fort Orange. They lived at Schenectady.

III. JOSEPH VanSYSEN, b. Jan. 4, 1699 at Schenectady, was a gunsmith. He m. HELENA MAGDALENA VROOMAN, b. July 9, 1704. He was a gunsmith and armorer.

IV. JOHANNES VanSEYSEN or VanSyce was b. Jan. 16, 1726, and bp. Jan. 23, 1726. He m. Mch. 11, 1747/8, MARGARITA FORT, was a gunsmith, lived at Schenectady and d. Mch. 11, 1878.

V. JOHN CORNELIUS VanSICE was the ancestor of the Bradford county branch of the family. His birth is recorded in the Genealogies of Schenectady, compiled many years ago by Dr. Pearson of Union College at that place. The baptismal records show a Johannes, bp. Aug. 19, 1759, and a Cornelis, bp. Nov. 1, 1761. The Bradford county pioneer is said to have been 93 years of age at the time of his demise in 1849. If this is correct, this would bring his birth as having occurred about 1756. Of course, a baptismal record is not a birth record, and we have no knowledge as to his age at time of baptism. Part of his children are recorded by Dr. Pearson, and he is called Cornelius in those records. These records are in substantial agreement with other information relating to the family, so there need be no equivocation over this identification. He was known as John C. or John Cornelius VanSice after coming to this area. Tradition handed down in the family was to the effect that he was born in Holland, and when about eight years of age, his parents being deceased, he and a brother, now known to have been Daniel, were brought to this country by friends. The early demise of the parents, and the consequent early separation from the rest of the family, could very easily lead to the belief that he was born abroad. Because of the persistent use of the Dutch language in their home communities where there were many Dutch people together, might have also been a factor in formulating the belief that he was born in the old country. This Writer has happened upon a number of other cases of this same import. Mr. VanSice seems to have spent his early life in the vicinity of Schoharie, N.Y. Upon the breaking out of the Revolutionary war he immediately joined the American Army and served seven years in the struggle for Independence. He fought at Bunker Hill, Trenton, Princeton, Monmouth, and crossed the Delaware with Washington, and was present at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. At the battle of Monmouth he was badly wounded in the right leg below the knee. In his old age he enjoyed recounting his war experiences, always speaking of Washington with the greatest reverence. He was a weaver by occupation, skilled in the art, and wove many fancy articles. He m. DEBORAH MURRAY, an Irish woman, and removed to Masonville, N.Y. They had six children. He spent his last days in Sheshequin, Pa. As a result of his wounds in the Revolution, he lost nearly all use of his legs and went about on crutches. The Government gave him a pension of $8[illegible] per year. He d. Oct. 30, 1849, ae. 93 yrs., and his remains rest in the Sheshequin cem. In the Civil war, nine sons of Abraham and three sons of Samuel served in the Union Army, the former being the most notable in the county. His wife was d/o Samuel and Dina (Hagedoorn) Murray, b. Aug. 31, 1766. The name appears as Van Syce in the 1850 census of Sheshequin, and VanSise on the headstone.

THE OLD COOLBAUGH HOMESTEAD.

THE HOME OF EUSTIS A. COOLBAUGH (p. 26 seq.) OF WYSOX, PA., AS IT APPEARED IN 1869, SHOWING THE OLD WOODEN BRIDGE NEAR THE HOUSE, AND HIS POWER DAM IN WYSOX CREEK. THE HOUSE WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN THE OLDEST IN WYSOX STILL STANDING, UP UNTIL THE SUMMER OF 1980. YOUR EDITOR'S MOTHER, WHO WAS EUSTIS COOLBAUGH'S DAUGHTER, USED TO SAY THAT ONE OF THE STROPE'S DIED THERE IN 1795. THE PLACE WAS ORIGINALLY THE "Parsonage Lot." OUR READERS WILL RECALL THAT WYSOX WAS PART OF THE CONNECTICUT TOWN OF CLAVERACK, ONE OF THE "Seventeen Townships" ESTABLISHED BY THE SETTLERS ON THE SUSQUEHANNA WHEN WESTMORELAND COUNTY, CONNECTICUT WAS CONSTITUTED IN 1776. THE ECONONY OF CONNECTICUT WAS PREMISED ON THE THEOCRATIC SYSTEM IN THE MOSAIC LAW, WHICH PROVIDED FOR AN INHERITANCE OF THE LEVITES, WHO WERE THE PRIESTS, AMONG THEIR BRETHREN. SO WHEN A NEW TOWN WAS ORGANIZED, AN ALLOTMENT WAS SET ASIDE FOR THE MINISTER. YOUR EDITOR HAS SEEN REFERENCES TO THE "Parsonage Lot." IN OLD DEEDS HANDED DOWN IN THE FAMILY. EUSTIS COOLBAUGH SPENT ALL HIS MARRIED LIFE IN THIS OLD HOUSE, AND HIS TEN CHILDREN WERE BORN IN IT. HIS DAUGHTER AGNES BOUGHT OUT THE OTHER HEIRS AT THE TIME OF THE SETTLEMENT OF HIS ESTATE, AND IT REMAINED IN HER POSSESSION UNTIL SOLD IN 1948. THE OTHER END OF THE FARM HAD BEEN PURCHASED BY SAMUEL COOLBAUGH IN 1834, HENCE IT WAS IN THE COOLBAUGH FAMILY FOR 114 YEARS. SAMUEL COOLBAUGH'S GRISTMILL, WHICH HE BUILT IN 1835, FURTHER DOWN THE CREEK, WHERE HE ERECTED A SECOND DAM, WAS ON ANOTHER CORNER OF THE FARM, NOW U.S. ROUTE 6. THE DAM IN THE PICTURE WAS USED TO POWER A SAWMILL, WHICH STOOD DOWN OVER THE BANK FROM THE END OF THE MERCUR HILL ROAD. MANASSEH M. MORK, A BROTHER OF MRS. COOLBAUGH, WAS THE SAWYER. AGNES COOLBAUGH REMEMBERED AS A LITTLE GIRL HER UNCLE PLACING HER ON A LARGE SAWLOG, AND LETTING HER RIDE OUT TOWARD THE MILL. MR. YORK LIVED IN A HOUSE, STILL STANDING, JUST A FEW YARDS UP THE ROAD FROM THE CORNER. THE WATER FOR THE MILLRACE PASSED UNDER THE ROAD AT THE RIGHT END OF THE BRIDGE, NEAR THE LARGE TREE. THE SMALL TREE IN THE MIDDLE OF THE PICTURE, BECAME AN IMMENSE BUTTONWOOD, AND WAS CUT, ONLY COMPARATIVELY RECENTLY, BY MR. SCHMECKENBECHER AFTER HE PURCHASED THE FARM. IT WAS JUST A SAPLING AT THE TIME OF THE 1865 FLOOD, AND THE WATER FROM THE RIVER BACKED UP JUST TO THE FOOT OF THE TREE. THE RIVER WAS 28 FEET AT TOWANDA. THE 1972 FLOOD CAME ALMOST TO THE TOP OF THE GRADE BEHIND THE TREE. THE RIVER SET A RECORD OF 33.80 FEET THIS LAST TIME. THE GRANARY, DIRECTLY BEHIND THE TREE, WAS, AT THAT TIME, AT THE CORNER OF THE DOORYARD. IT WAS AFTERWARDS MOVED OUT CLOSER TO THE BARN. THE BARN IS STILL STANDING. YOUR EDITOR'S FATHER BUILT TWO MORE BAYS ONTO THE LEFT END OF IT AFTER HE CAME THERE, MAKING IT MEASURE 40 X 70 FEET. HE ALSO PLACED THREE DORMER WINDOWS IN THE UPSTAIRS BEDROOMS. THE HOUSE WAS DAMAGED BY FIRE ON JULY 7, 1958, AND WAS FINALLY DEMOLISHED IN THE SUMMER OF 1980. YOUR EDITOR IS INDEBTED TO THE KIND OFFICES OF SUBSCRIBER MR. FOSTER BROOKS OF MEHOOPANY, PA., WHO BROUGHT ALONG HIS PHOTOGRAPHIC EQUIPMENT AND MADE THE PRINT FOR THE PHOTO. THE PEOPLE IN THE PHOTO WERE NOT MEMBERS OF THE COOLBAUGH FAMILY. THEY BELONGED TO THE MARTIN FAMILY, WHO LIVED ON THE OPPOSITE SIDE OF THE CREEK, DESCENDANTS OF CAPT. RALPH MARTIN, WHOSE WIFE, ANNA SHOEMAKER, WAS A SISTER OF THE WIVES OF MOSES COOLBAUGH AND WILLIAM COOLBAUGH JR., AND THEREFORE A COUSIN OF THE COOLBAUGH'S. CAPT. RALPH MARTIN HAD SETTLED ON THE CONKLIN FARM, NOW THE PROPERTY OF MR. W. ATLEE ROOF, IN 1789. THERE WAS ALSO A HOUSE NEAR THE END OF THE BRIDGE FROM WHICH THE PHOTO WAS TAKEN, ON THE UPPER SIDE OF THE ROAD. YOUR EDITOR HAS A LILAC BUSH IN HIS LAWN THAT CAME ORIGINALLY FROM THE SITE OF THIS OLD HOUSE. (Vide Martin Family in 162 Allied Families pp. 86-87; & Roof Family p. 11 in Continuation Section). THE FENCE AROUND THE DOORYARD WAS BUILT IN JANUARY 1852 BY JAMES Y. HINMAN, A DOUBLE-COUSIN OF MRS. COOLBAUGH. (Vide Hinman Family p. 4, seq.). UNDER

DATE OF JANUARY 1, OF THAT YEAR, HE WRITES IN HIS DIARY, "Made some stools for Mrs. Harriet Coolbaugh part of the day. In the afternoon went to Uncle Amos Yorks to eat a roast turkey &c. FRIDAY, JAN. 2. "Worked for E.A. Coolbaugh making fence." SAT. JAN. 3. "Worked for Mr. E.A. Coolbaugh making fence in front of door yard." HE WORKED UNTIL THE FOLLOWING WEDNESDAY ON THE FENCE. THAT DAY HE WRITES, "Worked half a day for E.A. Coolbaugh. It was to cold to work rest of the day & so I quit & went home." THE FENCE STOOD THERE UNTIL YOUR EDITOR WAS A SMALL BOY.

OUTDOOR PLUMBING.

YOUR EDITOR'S MOTHER HAD A SISTER WHO WAS SIXTEEN YEARS OLDER THAN SHE. SO AUNT LIZZIE WAS ALWAYS TELLING STORIES OF THINGS THAT HAPPENED MANY YEARS BEFORE. IT SEEMS THAT THERE WAS A BAD CLOUDBURST ON THE HEADWATERS OF WYSOX CREEK THAT CAME DOWN THRU ROME BORO, WHICH PRE-EMPTED EVERYBODY'S "OUTDOOR PLUMBING," AND FLOATED IT DOWN AND LODGED IT IN THE INTAKE OF MR. COOLBAUGH'S FLUME BY THE BRIDGE. FOR THE NEXT WEEK OR SO, ABOUT EVERY DAY OR TWO, SOMEBODY WOULD DRIVE UP WITH A LUMBER WAGON OR HAY RIGGING TO RETRIEVE THEIR PLUMBING FIXTURE AND TAKE IT BACK HOME WITH THEM. THEY ALWAYS CALLED THAT THE "WATER-CLOSET FLOOD."

ANOTHER STORY THAT AUNT LIZZIE USED TO TELL WAS ABOUT RIDING DOWN HILL IN THE WINTER TIME. THE YOUNG FOLK TOOK OUT A PANEL OF THE FENCE SO THEY COULD START UP THE HILL BACK OF THE HOUSE AND RIDE DOWN INTO THE ROAD AND ACROSS THE BRIDGE. ONE TIME THEIR MOTHER CAME OUT TO RIDE DOWN WITH THEM. THEY MISSED THE ROAD AND TIPPED OVER, THEIR MOTHER LANDING IN A SNOWBANK, SO THAT ONLY HER FEET STUCK OUT.

IT WAS IN THIS HOUSE THAT THE INCIDENT RECORDED ON P. 96 OF THE "162 Allied Families," WHEN THEIR GRANDMOTHER'S SISTER CAME FOR A VISIT, TOOK PLACE.

THE OLD WOODEN BRIDGE WAS REPLACED BY AN IRON ONE IN 1894. THIS REMAINED UNTIL THE FALL OF 1926, WHEN IT WAS WASHED OUT, AND THE PRESENT STEEL AND CONCRETE BRIDGE TOOK ITS PLACE.

BABCOCK.

I.

Variant, BADCOCK.

BABCOCK is a personal name. Little Bab or Batholomew. English bab or babb, the stranger, the foreigner, Anglo-Latin-Greek, or baba, a boy, or a young child of either sex; German bube, a boy; Greek baba, an inarticulate sound, as of an infant crying out; hence, a little child; to say baba, that is father or papa; the word is nearly the same in all languages; babb with the suffix cock, small, little, son, diminutive, and includes the ideas of kindness and tenderness, associated with smallness of size.

There was a William Badecock in Cambridgeshire in the 13th. century. The name is also represented in Berkshire and Somersetshire, 1272—1320, Roger Badecock. The following are listed as heads of different lines in New England prior to 1700.

MUCH OF THE INFORMATION IN THE FOLLOWING RECORD WAS GATHERED BY SUBSCRIBER JERRY L. MONTGOMERY OF TOWANDA, PA. THE BABCOCK MARRIAGE REGISTER WAS COMPILED FROM MARRIAGE LICENSES REDEEMED BY REV. ALONZO A. BABCOCK, AND NOW IN THE POSSESSION OF HIS GREAT-GRANDSON, C. BERNARD EDSELL OF BRUSHVILLE, PA., subscriber.

SIDNEY M. BABCOCK, or Sydney M., as the name is indiscriminately written, was b. 1815. He was a resident of Durell, Pa., in 1846, at the time his dau. Eliza was born. He d. in Vought Hollow, Rome Twp., Apr. 20, 1873, ae. 58 years. The first mention of him in the land records of Bradford county is when he and his wife Amy or Amie deeded five acres in Litchfield Twp. to Lucy Green, wife of James Green of Litchfield Twp., consideration $100; the premises were bounded north by Abijay Dascum and Olive Robinson, on west by main road from Athens thru Litchfield, south by John Campbell and Prentis Wolcott and east by Harry (or Mary) Backus. This deed was given to replace an earlier deed that was lost. There is no postamble in the deed which might indicate when the land was acquired, nor from whom. Amie Babcock was of full age at the time.

Under date of Feb. 22, 1865, Joel Stevens and wife Sarah G. of Standing Stone convey to Sidney M. Babcock of Rome Twp., consideration $360, land in Rome Twp..... Beginning at line of Daniel Russell, along east side of Russell to corner, then to another corner on S. Minier's lot, thence along said lot to corner, then to Beginning, containing thirty acres, same being land conveyed by A.H. Spalding, Sheriff, to Joel Stevens, by deed dated May 12, 1863.

Under date of Aug. 23, 1865, Sidney M. Babcock conveyed the same parcel to Alonzo W. Beeman of Oneida Co., N.Y., for $450. In a fourth conveyance, Feb. 25, 1870, Sidney M. Babcock and wife Amy of Rome Twp. transfer to Elijah Shoemaker of Windham, for $300, land in Rome Twp. beginning at corner of lot owned by Lydia King, thence along George Brant (?)... along line of formerly (Daniel or David ?) Eiklor.....to corner on lot now owned by Henry Babcock, then along Dan Russell, then to land formerly owned by Philip Bartlett, thence along Bartlett to Beginning, containing forty acres. Amy signed the deed with Her X Mark.

The old Beers Bradford County Atlas, 1869, shows S. Babcock along the brook, off the Babcock Road in Rome Twp., about halfway between where Elmer Comstock now resides, and where his father, Harry Comstock, lived. Sidney's grandson, William Babcock, lived at the same location in more recent years. The Pike Twp. census records for 1850 and 1860 do not show anyone of the name residing in that township. The 1870 census of Rome Twp. gives Sidney Babcock, age 55, farmer, real estate $1200, personal property $500; his wife Amie was 56, b. in New Jersey, hence b. abt. 1815. Others of the name in the township at the time were Isaac, 32; Alonzo, 26; Henry R., 25; and Daniel, 20. Henry and Alonzo are known to have been sons of Sidney. The other two were sons of Franklin Babcock of Tuscarora Twp., Bradford Co.

*1. Henry R., b. Mch. 27, 1844, m. Maryetta Morris.
*2. Alonzo A., b. ca. 1844, m. Hattie Brant.
3. Eliza, b. 1846, m. ..... Beeman.
4. Frances, m. John Alba Beeman; 2d. Frank Fowler.
5. Asa E., m. Katherine Rockwell; no children. They were m. at Windham Center, Dec. 15, 1872, by Rev. W.C. Pack. Both were from Rome. Mr. Babcock is listed as a laborer, house on Main St., Rome Boro, 1900. Mrs. Babcock d. at Rome, Feb. 6, 1916. RIDGWAY (Cont.).

IV. Letter.:

LETTER WRITTEN BY BURR RIDGWAY TO HIS SISTER, ABIGAIL RIDGWAY LIVEZEY, AND TO HIS DAUGHTER, LYDIA ANN RIDGWAY, WHO WAS STAYING WITH HER AUNT IN PHILADELPHIA, FOR A TIME, DESCRIBING HIS RETURN TRIP HOME FROM THERE. SUPPLIED BY THE LATE CHARLES H. NEWELL OF KENMORE, N.Y., A DESCENDANT OF ELIZABETH RIDGWAY KINSMAN OF TOWANDA, PA. (No. C3812 Ridgway Fam.).

Monroeton [PA.] —Nov. 12 1837

Most Kindly affectionate,

I have arrived home safe and sound and a tough match too— I will now give you the incidents by the way.— As L.A.R. [LYDIA ANN RIDGWAY, HIS DAUGHTER] and myself had such a pleasant time going to P. [PHILADELPHIA] I will give you a little sketch of my return. 3 day got pleasantly to Solebery [SOLEBURY, BUCKS CO., PA.] found them all well and made ready for an early start next morning — 4th day got an early start and it being a pleasant day journeyed on very leisurely until I got a little beyond Easton, when I found my horse failed, as there was an excellent town 5 miles beyond, Seips, I made out to get there when my horse seemed to totally fail, there being many travelers there but none could tell what was the matter or what to do — will I done the best I could still seemed to be no relief and expected to have to take the stage in the morning and go home for another horse — but in the morning when I opened the stable door and thinking my horse might be dead, found him better — you may think I felt better also, — well 7th day hitched on and thought I would go on for a few miles and so get home in process of time, but after travelling a few miles horse began to go better & continued to improve until I got home & went 25 miles to-day, got Pocono mountain hotel, but found a change of landlord sometimes makes a change of rules, found a most noisy house & as I had slept but little the night before retired early to bed but not to sleep, one little urchin pushing a chair on the floor & a larger one helping to keep up the noise. 6th day got up to take an early start found my horse much better and jogged on nearly 35 miles today, a little beyond WilkesBarre to an excellent house, slept well and made up for loss of sleep two former nights. 7th day my horse felt well and now began to eat full allowance & I jogged on comfortably, at 1 oclock found I had made a good headway and determined to push on went 36 miles and came to a house of entertainment kept by a farmer and it being dark and two miles farther to a tavern I concluded to stay for the night, well went in and found things looked clean and snug— had my horse well taken care of and calling for my supper had it in very good style, Now thinks I to myself for a good sleep, but also on retiring early to bed had an early nap when as if my evil genius still hovered over me while I was so sweetly reposing on a good bed, the boys of the house were out hunting Raccoons, and to my great disturbance came home triumphant, for such another clamoring and joy I think I never heard before and there was no sleep for me after about eleven oclock, for I could not account for the noise until about daylight when I got up and was near stumbling over about as large a Raccoon as I ever saw — that night it rained a little and I thought I should have a rainy day the next day but it cleared up and I had a pleasant day the next day except about two hours a tremendous blow of wind and I was at times fearful of trees falling on me but got safe to H.M's [HANNAH MIDDLETON, HIS SISTER] about 4 oclock found she and Jacob gone to my house so I jogged on a little further to S.P. [PROB. SHEPARD PIERCE, WYSOX, HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW] found them all well. Sophia had moved all things and going on well — next day arrived home found all well — and H.M. [HANNAH MIDDLETON, HIS SISTER] going home with me they are all well. Next day but one went to James [JAMES RIDGWAY, HIS SON;-JUST BELOW FRANKLINDALE NARROWS]. found in good health and they desired to be remembered in my letter.—Nancy [NANCY RIDGWAY, HIS DAUGHTER] is highly delighted with her present and Dorsey [PROB. DORSEY JOHNSON, HIS GRANDSON] much amused with his. H.T. paints suits well and he is making pictures to suit himself. Rowland Willcox has lost their child, it was a great trial to them. I forgot to mention on my arrival at WilkesBarre, the contrast there was between the scene on the Delaware and its vicinity and that on the Susquehanna on and near the Delaware all dry and still when I arrived at the Susquehanna how I was surprised to see a good freshet in the river and all the necessary hustle of rafting and found many of my neighbors gone down the river with rafts. Last week when we returned home from James, he and Samantha [JAMES' WIFE] accompanied us as far as the corners [MONROETON] and we all stayed in the evening to meeting. It seemed to be a truly refreshing time and many seemed to be deeply concerned, amongst them was Enoch Cranmer and you will be surprised and will be greater when I mention that Sevellon Alden [SEVELLON WELLS ALDEN—LATER BECAME A METHODIST MINISTER] has been induced to bend before the cross and that his wife is rejoicing in hope and traveling on with delight. Samantha feels it her duty to be fully resigned to the doings of the Lord and willing to take up the cross—and there is to be a meeting at the school house [IN KELLOGG] when we shall most of us attend. How oft since my return my mind turns towards you and could fancy myself with you in your fireside stillness and quietness and until I am aroused from my reverie I can still sit in silent converse with you. I have written this letter as though you were both acquainted with all the circumstances. I thought one letter would do and what one cannot apprehend the other can explain. We jog on much as usual — as to Joseph — G.T. [PROB. JOSEPH JOHNSON AND GEORGE TRACY, HIS SONS-IN-LAW] has agreed that if he should be likely to have any trouble he will assist him with $200.00.—now if J's could get assistance for $200 more he could weather the storm — he has got logs for 50 thousand feet boards which if he has a little time and ordinary luck he can with little assistance get through, he has been very industrious this fall and got his work along very well — I must now close; but incident more — mother [i.e., BURR'S WIFE] has traded away the cherry cow for another cherry and got $4.00 to boot. She has made a good trade considering with a drover. Wishing you may be strongly supported by that power which is alone able to save, is the wish of one whose mind is constantly with you and whose earnest desire is for your welfare. Adieu — all friends [AN ARCHAISM MEANING RELATIVES] desire to be remembered in my letter. Please mention what No Ridgway and Budd live.

Burr Ridgway.
